Annual Report

of
The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts

For the Year

1918

The Self-sacrifice and Devotion of Seamen have, by God's Mercy, made possible our Glorious Victory.

The Missions to Seamen is the Greatest agency in the world ministering to the spiritual and social needs of our

BRITISH SAILORS

IN ALL THE PRINCIPAL PORTS
HOME AND ABROAD.

While extending an equal welcome to Sailors of all creeds, its work is carried on in accordance with the principles and received practice of the Church of England.

ADMIRAL SIR ROBERT
LOWRY, K.C.B.,

after visiting the great Commercial Ports in England and Ireland, said :

"The work which The Missions to Seamen is doing exceeds the work of all the other Societies put together."

FUNDS ARE VERY URGENTLY NEEDED for extension in the Ports of Belgium and Northern France.

At the urgent request of the British Consul, the Mission appeals for £7,000 for the provision of a Seamen's Institute and Sailors' Church at Dunkirk, as a Memorial to the Men of the Dover Patrol.

PLEASE SEND A GIFT as a THANKOFFERING for VICTORY & PEACE.

STUART C. KNOX, M.A., Secretary.
THE MISSIONS TO SEAMEN, 11 Buckingham St., Strand, London, W.C.2.

THE ENGLISH CHURCH UNION

(FOUNDED 1859).

To what am I Pledged by Joining?

To hearty concurrence with the three objects of E. C. U., which are—

- (1) To defend and maintain, unimpaired, the DOCTRINE and DISCIPLINE of the Church of England.
- (2) To afford counsel, protection and assistance to all persons, Lay or Clerical, suffering under unjust aggression, or hindrance in Spiritual matters.
- (3) In general so to promote the interests of Religion as to be, by GOD'S help, a lasting witness for the advancement of His glory and the good of His Church.

Every earnest and thoughtful Communicant who considers what the three Objects of E. C. U. really mean must wish to promote them.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS,

15 TUFTON STREET, WESTMINSTER, S.W.1.

PRESIDENT: HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.

Incorporated by Royal Charter, 1701.

Supplemental Charter, 1882.

How may we thank God?

Whatever is great in the victory and peace that God has given us is most surely found in the inspiration of the Christian Gospel; that right is greater than might, that truth is greater than falsehood, and therefore was bound to prevail.

How can we thank God better than by helping now to extend His Kingdom of Righteousness and truth?

Throughout a long war God has helped us; so marvellously that our hearts are full of praise.

We have withdrawn no missionary worker, nor abandoned any Mission Station.

And now Dioceses in every Continent plead for the means to go forward. We cannot refuse.

Help our PEACE THANKOFFERING FUND

for the extension overseas of the Gospel which stands behind the principles for which we have fought through more than four years, and for which so many have died.

Work.

In every Continent, and in almost every Country of the world, the Society has its Mission Stations, Lighthouses of Christianity, radiating their influence over great areas, maintaining the White Settler in the lessons of Faith, Hope, and Charity, preaching the Gospel, administering the Sacraments, and extending the offer of Christian Freedom to Nations in the Darkness of Heathendom or the twilight of Non-Christian Religions.

Vacancies for men and women exist in most parts of the Mission Field, of which particulars may be obtained at Headquarters.

Subscriptions and Donations should be made payable to the "Treasurers of the S.P.G." or bearer, and crossed "Messrs. Drummond." They may be paid through Local Associations of the S.P.G., or sent direct to S.P.G. House, 15 Tufton Street, Westminster, S.W. 1.

The Society's official organ, THE MISSION FIELD, price 1d., can be obtained from any bookseller.

Complete Illustrated Catalogue of Publications and other Literature will be supplied on application.

GEORGE L. KING (Bishop),
Secretary.

St. Peter's Rectory, Walworth, S.E.

It was over 25 years ago that I caused samples to be taken of all wines advertised for Eucharistic purposes. Some were found to have much added alcohol, and others extraneous matter. Messrs. Ford & Son's "Oedens" proved the best on analysis. I have since then used no other, and have never found any difference.

FOR THE RECEIVING MANAGING AND DISPOSING OF FUNDS CONTRIBUTED FOR THE RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION OF THE KING'S SUBJECTS
BEYOND THE SEAS

FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF CLERGYMEN IN THE PLANTATIONS COLONIES AND FACTORIES OF GREAT BRITAIN

AND FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN THOSE PARTS

The Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts

15 TUFTON STREET WESTMINSTER S.W.

[Published May 1, 1919.]

NOTICES AND DIRECTIONS.

Telephone 1861 VICTORIA.

Telegraphic Address: "GOSPELIZE, VIC, LONDON.
Code "PREMIER AND ECCLESIASTICAL."

"While recognising the advantage to the Society of meetings organised by its friends for the sale of work and other articles, which, in addition to the funds obtained, enable those of small means to help by personal labour, the Standing Committee are of opinion that the objects of excitement which are sometimes added to such sales ought to be discouraged, since they are alien from the spirit of self-denial by which the Gospel is best propagated."—Resolution passed by the Standing Committee, 1888.

LETTERS.—It is requested that ALL LETTERS on the business of the Society be addressed, "The Secretary, S.P.G. House, 15 Tufton Street, Westminster, S.W. 1." Letters relating to Publications should be written separately from those relating to or containing Contributions to the Society.

REMITTANCES, when sent direct to the Society's Office, should be made:—

By Cheque, Money Order on the "Chief Office, London," or Postal Orders, payable to "The Treasurers of the S.P.G. OR BEARER," and crossed "MESSRS. DRUMMOND."

N.B.—In the case of those Dioceses where there is a Diocesan Treasurer it may be preferred to remit through him. His name and address will be found in the Diocesan Reports.

DAY FOR CLOSING ACCOUNTS.—The Society's financial year closes on December 31. Since, however, it may be difficult for Local Secretaries and Treasurers to get in all the Subscriptions before the end of the year, the Treasurers' books will be kept open until January 16 each year.

MONEY ON ACCOUNT.—It would be a great help to the Treasurers if moneys in the hands of Local Secretaries and Treasurers could be remitted at least quarterly, or half-yearly, on account.

Unless remitting "on account" the particulars giving list of names etc., should always accompany the remittance. Membership subscriptions should be clearly marked as such.

FORM OF LEGACY.—I give to "THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS" the sum of £ ; or * (vide Note), to be applied to the purposes of the Society, and the Receipt of a Treasurer of the Society shall be sufficient discharge for the same.

* NOTE.—Under the Mortmain Acts (as now amended) land, tenements and hereditaments of any tenure may be given by Will to or for the benefit of any charitable use, but must be sold within one year of the death of the Testator for the benefit of the Charity. Personal property of any nature may also be bequeathed for charitable purposes.

† If intended please insert the words "Free of duty."

OFFICE HOURS TEN TO FIVE DAILY, except on Saturday, when the Office is closed at 1 P.M., and on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, Easter Eve, Ascension Day, Christmas Day, and the legal Bank Holidays, when it is closed entirely.

Short Services are held in the Chapel of the Society's House at 10 a.m. and at midday. The "S.P.G. Cycle of Prayer and Praise" contains the prayers which are said in the Chapel at midday. It also includes a list of the Society's missionaries throughout the world. Price 2½d., post free.

Annual Report

INTRODUCTION.

A SURVEY OF THE WORLD.

THE year 1918 will ever be memorable in the history of the world. The whole world trembled as the months passed: trembled for all that makes life worth living, for the existence of Christian civilisation and ethics, for the freedom of nations and individuals, for the sanctity of the plighted word, for the preservation of the rights of mankind won through long centuries of effort and against the impact of ruthless force. Thus religion and politics were interwoven into one common anxiety, and even dread, as the armies of the Allied Nations awaited the last effort of the German forces. In due time came the enemy collapse, the armistice, the signs of world peace. Thus 1918 saw the close of the ploughing of the nations, the "long furrows," the shattering of the surface of life and of weeds, the breaking up of a huge expanse of ground too long permitted to lie fallow. In spite of loss—loss as yet incomputable—we can thank God for the final outcome. Never before has the world learnt such lessons, lessons of shame as well as of victory, of debased human action, and of uttermost nobility.

But the plough-work is but a beginning. There is the harrowing. This is now proceeding. Then the sowing. Thus, too, may the year 1919 be ever memorable in the world's records: and equal in its vast issues, for good or for evil, as the year 1918.

It is obvious that till the armistice was proclaimed there could be little beyond world survey and preparation for the future. Missionaries overseas could not leave their posts, especially when all who could be spared, both men and women, were lent to the Army authorities.

Similarly, at home, all young men in training for work abroad joined the active forces. Women acted in the same manner. Both sexes also supplied noble members for the Rolls of Honour. On another page such records as are possible are supplied. We come back to the work of survey and preparation.

The year 1918 will also be memorable for the adhesion of the S.P.G. to "the Conference of Missionary Societies." Thus, and thus only, was it found to be possible to take a real world-survey: especially as this Conference represents the best knowledge and experience not only of all British, but also of all American Missionary Societies, exclusive of the Church of Rome. Meanwhile commissions have been quietly at work. Some have been surveying “unoccupied” regions, others educational problems—especially in India and Africa. Surveys are in progress in regard to Medical Missions—especially in China. Literature for Missions is not forgotten for home education and for the convert. Above all, recruiting for the Church abroad has been strenuously carried on both for men and for women, and the names run into thousands. Then also the problem of the training of such recruits after the testing of the War which they have endured; and both for men and women this question is being solved. Sowing has therefore begun. Yet so much of it must be experimental under the new conditions that while our hope of great things abides, yet at the same time we are prepared for disappointments. Even some methods may have to be abandoned, and the living agents may have to be sifted down to a small nucleus. Perpetual encouragement comes from the knowledge that every effort, in every direction as we sow, is steeped in prayer, and the promises of God stand sure.

But a Survey of the World must not omit the problems of the United Kingdom itself. It is in this land, which the British Empire calls “Home,” that the main Mission force for British Missions is generated, and the sowing of the fields of God needs peace. Work abroad rests upon a united people—industrially, socially, politically. Still more does British Christianity need to be respectful, sympathetic, just, and kind, throughout all its broken fragments. In this, again—since no day passes without prayer from millions for such peace—we are full of hope: our faith abides: we pray for the love of man to man, and of man to God, since God has first loved us

OBITUARY.—The list of those who have died during 1918 consists of many veritable standard-bearers held in reverence by all who knew them. A reference is given to our Magazines, where a special Resolution was passed by the Society

Vice-Presidents and Bishops.—Bishop Walsh, Bishop Boyd Carpenter, Bishop Stonewigg, the late Bishop of Hereford (Dr. Percival), the Bishop of Marlborough (Dr. Earle), Bishop Lefroy, Bishop of Calcutta and Metropolitan (M. F. March, 1919).

Mrs. Bunyon (a great worker and benefactor), Miss Elizabeth Scarth (New Guinea).

THE ANNUAL MEETINGS.—The Anniversary Service was held on Wednesday, April 24, at 11 A.M. The Litany was sung in procession, followed by a choral celebration of Holy Communion the Archbishop of Canterbury celebrating. The sermon was, preached by Lord William Cecil, Bishop of Exeter. On Thursday, April 25, at 2.30, the Annual Meeting was held in the Queen's Hall: His Grace the President was the Chairman: the speakers were the Rev. G. Hibbert Ware (Lahore), Rev. H. B. Walton (Japan), and Mrs. Knight Bruce for Women's Work.

In 1919 the Annual Meeting of the Society (of the Incorporated Members) was held at S.P.G. House on Friday, February 21. The surviving Vice-Presidents, other than those holding the position ex officio, were re-elected, and the following were elected to the position of Vice-Presidents for the year ensuing:

Three Chairmen, one of whom should preside at the Monthly Meeting of Members, were elected: Bishop Hook, W. S. De Winton, Esq., and J. H. Nelson, Esq.

The following were declared to be re-elected by the Standing Committee to serve for 1919.

The Rev. H. Monroe, the Rev. A. A. Sharp, and E. B. Trotter, Esq., were re-elected, and the Rev. Canon H. A. Douglas-Hamilton, Colonel E. Hughes, C.B., C.M.G., the Rev. W. J. Margetson, Athelstan Riley, Esq., and the Rev. A. O. Tisdall were elected as members of the Standing Committee.

The following resolution was also carried by a large majority:

"That this Committee, while welcoming any action on the part of the Central Board of Missions, which may bring home to the conscience of every Churchman and Churchwoman the paramount obligation of taking a personal and active part in the extension of the Kingdom of Christ, are of opinion that under present conditions the establishment of a new Central Fund, except such as is necessary for the Board's own expenditure, would divert attention from this spiritual appeal, and would create an idea of competition with the existing Societies."

This resolution had been previously carried by the Standing Committee on October 2, 1918.

THE RETIRING SECRETARY OF S.P.G.—The Monthly Meeting of the Society was held on Friday, April 19, 1918, at 2.30 p.m., at the Society's House, 15 Tufton Street, Westminster.

The following resolution on the retirement of the Right Rev. the Secretary, proposed by Canon Gamble (Chairman of the Standing Committee), and seconded by the Ven. Archdeacon Brook Deedes, was supported by the Rev. C. C. B. Bardsley (Hon. Secretary of the C.M.S.), and the Rev. G. L. Gosling (Secretary of the S.P.C.K.), and by others, and was unanimously adopted :—

“ Agreed that the Society, assembled in Monthly Meeting, desires to place on record its appreciation of the signal services rendered by Bishop Montgomery during his tenure of the office of Secretary for the past seventeen years, not only in the development of the work for which S.P.G. is directly responsible, but in the whole Cause of Missions as a primary and vital part of the activities of the entire Anglican Church.

“ Bishop Montgomery was called to the Secretaryship from the Antipodes. As Bishop of Tasmania he had gained a wide grasp of the needs and problems of the Colonial Church, and in the Synods of the Australasian Province had had no small share in creating a missionary spirit which has reacted upon the vitality of those distant offshoots of the Mother Church.

“ During his Secretaryship the following are among the advances made by the Society. In some cases they are directly due to his own initiative and sagacity ; in all, they owe much to his leadership and support :—

“ (1) The NEW HOUSE IN TUFTON STREET, dedicated in 1908, which has made possible much of the development of the Society's work, and which has already become to thousands of workers at home and overseas the headquarters of their activities. From the Chapel, which is its spiritual centre, flows the inspiration derived from continual prayer and intercession and communion.

“ (2) The INCOME OF THE GENERAL FUND, from Subscriptions, Donations, and Collections, has risen with a gradual and on the whole a steady movement of advance, which the War has but stimulated, from £88,000 in 1901 to £147,000 in 1917 to £154,000 in 1918.

“ (3) NEW DEPARTMENTS AND ORGANISATIONS.—The Editorial Department, established 1902.

“ Women's Work, brought into complete administrative and financial union with the Society by the substitution of ‘ The Women's Work (S.P.G.) Committee ’ for the ‘ Women's Mission Association,’ 1903.

“ Braille Department, 1903.

“ Study Department, 1903.

“ Candidates' Department, 1904.

“ Candidates' Five Shilling Fund, for increasing the special Candidates' Fund, 1905.

“ Missionary Preparation Union, 1905.

“ King's Workers, 1905.

“ Laymen's Missionary Association, 1905.

“ The Summer School, 1907.

“ Extension of Lending Library, 1907.

“ Medical Missions Department, formed 1908.

“ The Exhibitions Department, 1910.

"(4) AFFILIATION OF SPECIAL FUNDS ASSOCIATIONS.—By this measure, begun in 1904, a real danger of the disintegration of the work by the formation of a large number of small independent efforts arising out of the natural desire of many persons to give support to a particular diocese or mission, was converted into a source of additional strength. The donors retain complete liberty of allotment, but the labour and expense of administration is undertaken by the Society, which thus co-ordinates their efforts.

"(5) The EXTENSION OF MEMBERSHIP, dating from 1911, by which the old system of Incorporated Membership is supplemented by the creation of a class of 'Members,' who can afford but a very small subscription, but obtain recognition and a certain share of representation.

"(6) PUBLICATIONS.—There has been an important increase in the general output of Literature. The East and the West dates from 1903, and The Home Workers' Gazette from 1908. Bishop Montgomery has himself contributed works of the highest missionary value, among them:—

" 'Principles and Problems of Foreign Missions.'

" 'Visions'—three series.

" 'The Church on the Prairie.'

" 'Mankind and the Church,' edited by him.

" 'Foreign Missions' (in the 'Handbooks for the Clergy' series).

" 'Service Abroad.'

" 'Scripture Messages'; to which may be added the illuminating Monthly Survey delivered at the Monthly Meetings of the Society.

"No survey, however brief, of the activities of the Secretary can omit a glance at the vast mass of work which he has accomplished outside the direct responsibilities of the House—much of it of the highest and widest missionary value. As a preacher and a speaker at meetings he has a reputation which extends far beyond the United Kingdom; at the Councils of the Central Board of Missions he exercises an influence second to none; in Conferences, unofficial and more or less informal, of missionary-hearted men and women attached to other Societies, and in some cases bringing together those who belong to other religious bodies, he speaks with an authority which is unquestioned, and represents the principles of the Church at once frankly and with a tactfulness and breadth of sympathy which secure a ready hearing.

"No small share was his in the conception and in the successful carrying out of the Pan-Anglican Congress and Offering. Five times during his term of office has he been sent forth to represent the Society or the whole Church of England on special missions: to Canada in 1907; to the Far East, 1910-1911; to India (at the cost of a serious illness), 1914; to the United States, 1908 and 1917.

"But, after all, it is the man himself who counts; and if, at the close of these seventeen years, the Society occupies a position in the esteem of the Church far beyond any previously attained, it is greatly due to the personality of the retiring Secretary. A Seer, a man of vision, a Missionary Statesman, interpreting and largely influencing the trend of religious thought and action; one who is above personal jealousies and ambitions; above all, a man of deep spiritual reality and devotion;—such are the characteristics which have impressed themselves upon his fellow workers and upon his staff, which have secured for him the loyal and affectionate co-operation of the bishops and clergy abroad, and an intimate and honoured place in the counsels of the leaders of the Church at home.

"The Society bids him God-speed, sure that in his retirement he will continue to exercise his great gifts for the end for which alone it itself exists—the advancement of the Kingdom of Christ."

THE NEW SECRETARY OF THE SOCIETY.—A Special Meeting of the Society was held on Friday, November 22, 1918, at 2.30 P.M., at the Hoare Memorial Hall, Church House, Westminster.

The Meeting was called "by command of His Grace the President of the Society to receive a recommendation from the Standing Committee with reference to the Secretaryship of the Society, and to proceed to election."

1. Prayers were read by Bishop Montgomery.

2. After some introductory remarks His Grace the President called on the Chairman of the Standing Committee (the Very Rev. the Dean of Exeter), who then read the following:—

"RECORD OF PROCEDURE IN REGARD TO THE SELECTION AND ELECTION OF A SECRETARY OF THE SOCIETY IN SUCCESSION TO THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP MONTGOMERY, RESIGNED:—

"On receiving information from His Grace the President, of the intention of the Secretary to resign his office, the Society at its Annual Meeting on February 15, 1918, resolved:

"That the Standing Committee be asked to consider and recommend to the Incorporated Members the name of a suitable Bishop, Priest, or Layman (or if deemed desirable alternative names of more than one person) for election to the office of Secretary."

"On this the Standing Committee at its Meeting on March 7 passed the following Resolution:—

"Agreed that a Special Committee be hereby appointed to receive and consider suggestions for nominations of a suitable person or suitable persons for submission to the Society and the terms of the appointment.

"That such Special Committee consist of:

"The Selection and Reference sub-Committee with the addition of:—

"(a) Three members of the Diocesan Episcopate at home to be nominated, if he consent, by His Grace the President."

[Note—The three nominated were the Bishops of Ely, Exeter, and Rochester.]

"(b) Three representatives of the younger members of the Standing Committee to be nominated by the Standing Committee."

(The three nominated were the Rev. Canon [now Archdeacon] White-Thomson, the Rev. A. H. Thompson, and the Rev. C. W. Alington.)

"And that the Committee be asked to confer with the two Reconstruction Committees."

"This Committee reported as follows to the Standing Committee at its Meeting on October 3, 1918:—

"The Special Committee appointed 'to receive and consider suggestions for nominations of a suitable person or suitable persons for submission to the Society and the terms of the appointment' have held five Meetings and have given the most anxious and prolonged consideration to the all-important matter confided to them.

"They have carefully weighed the qualifications not only of those persons whose names suggested themselves to them, but of others suggested by those best qualified to give advice, and such advice has been widely asked and freely given.

"The list, which included the names of numerous Bishops and priests and of one distinguished layman, was finally reduced to one name—that of :

The Right Rev. Dr. KING, BISHOP IN MADAGASCAR.

"The Standing Committee thereupon resolved (on October 3) :—

"That the Archbishop of Canterbury be asked to send a cablegram to the Right Rev. Dr. King, Bishop in Madagascar, inviting him to allow his name to be placed before the Incorporated Members for election as Secretary of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel."

"The following cablegram was sent by His Grace on October 14, 1918 :—

"May I submit your name to Incorporated Members for election as Secretary of Society vice Montgomery ? The Standing Committee unanimously recommends this and I cordially concur as President."

"To this Bishop King replied :—

"Accept if chosen."

3. His Grace then spoke of Bishop King's personality, capacities, and fitness for this office, and read the following Biographical notes, based upon information supplied by the Rev. Dr. Feltoe (Commissary in England of the Bishop in Madagascar) :—

"Bishop George Lanchester King had been a classical scholar of Clare College, Cambridge, and a pupil of Bishop Lightfoot at Auckland Castle, when in 1884 he was ordained to the curacy of Tudhoe Grange, then just made a Vicarage in the Diocese of Durham. There he remained till 1889, when he went for a short time to Holy Trinity, Gateshead. In 1890 he began his most important work in the North of England, first as curate and then as Vicar of St. Mary's, Shields. His style and methods, which have always been essentially spiritual and uplifting, strongly commended him to Bishop Westcott.

"He was one of those who signed the letter to the Bishop asking if he was prepared to direct them should they place themselves in his hands for service at home or abroad. It was through the late Canon Body that his name was brought forward as successor to Bishop Kestell-Cornish as head of the Anglican Mission to Madagascar in 1899.

"During the nineteen years of his administration of that office there has been constant need in dealing both with the French authorities and with the native converts, of great tact and patience as well as of zeal and adherence to high ideals of Faith and Worship. These qualities, aided largely by his happy disposition and sense of humour, have never failed him ; and, in spite of many hindrances and difficulties, he has steadily led his fellow workers (lay and clerical, men and women) and their flocks forward along sound and sure lines of progress and improvement, crowned this year by the meeting for the first time of a properly constituted Synod of the Diocese.

"He has always shown himself a reader and a thinker, and, above all, a man of prayer; and has sought with marked success to subordinate organisation to principle and machinery to reality and truth.

"A most interesting account of the first Synod of the Diocese is published in the Mission Field for the current month, and has been read, no doubt, by all here. It gives an outstanding impression of firm grasp, on the part of the Bishop, of Catholic principles, of statesmanship and tact, of power of organisation, and of practical wisdom. His own reports and letters to the Society at home consistently display the same characteristics.

"One who was intimately connected with him in earlier days writes:

"He is an indefatigable worker, without any thought of self coming into his life and work. He is a saint of deep personal holiness.

"Another, who has had special opportunities of observing the character that has marked his episcopate, notes among his qualifications for the office for which he is now recommended, that he has given full evidence of a strong and definite Churchmanship, while showing himself thoroughly sympathetic toward other Christian bodies working in Madagascar. When he has visited the London Missionary Society's House at home to meet the authorities of various Missions at work within his Diocese, nothing could have been better than his attitude and temper. He was much appreciated there. And the same authority reminds us that he has had great experience in dealing with difficult political problems.

"It is upon such evidence as this that the Standing Committee now recommend Bishop King to the Incorporated Members for election to the office of Secretary to the Society."

4. The resolution of the Standing Committee was then put to the meeting and accepted nem. con.

It was further agreed that a special meeting should be called to welcome Bishop King on his arrival.

The Doxology having been sung, the meeting joined in prayer and thanksgiving for the election, and an intercession for the coming work of the new Secretary. The hymn "Thy Kingdom come" was then sung, and His Grace pronounced the Benediction.

DISMISSAL AND OTHER SERVICES.—Naturally, during 1918, such services dropped to a minimum. Four only are recorded for nine missionaries. Others received their blessing elsewhere. Confirmations of wounded soldiers were held three times, for sixteen candidates. Bishop Ryle acted on one occasion. There have, of course, been many impressive services in the Chapel, and very many celebrations of Holy Communion. The Memorial Service for Archdeacon King of Tokyo was a solemn occasion. The Archbishop of York celebrated on the occasion of an important meeting of the C.E.M.S. The Mothers' Union, the Pilgrimage of Prayer, and many special Funds Associations have used the Chapel for Retreats and Intercessions. We are proud to be thus privileged to welcome the faithful.

THE CANDIDATES' DEPARTMENT.—The Society's students are now released from military service. Forty-eight of them have served in the army, of whom thirteen have lost their lives. The Missionary Colleges have (with one exception) been closed during the war. They are now open again, and almost all the students are now in residence either in them or at the Universities.

Enquiries with regard to the Society's Missionary Studentships have been received from a large number of men who have been serving in the army. It is expected that there will be a fair number of definite applications from them.

S.P.G. MISSIONARIES, 1918 (Men).—It is earnestly to be hoped that with the cessation of hostilities there may be a great increase in the offers for missionary work overseas. How seriously the War has affected this side of the Society's work is strikingly shown in the decrease year by year in the numbers of those recommended by the Board of Examiners.

In 1913 there were sixty recommended, in 1914 forty-three, in 1915 thirty-two, in 1916 twenty-one, in 1917 six, and in 1918 three. May there now be a happy reversal of this process.

The three recommended during last year were the Rev. A. T. Humphrey, A.K.C.L., for work at St. Stephen's College, Delhi; the Rev. Wilfrid Linton, of St. Augustine's College, Canterbury, and B.A. Durham, for work in Borneo; and Mr. S. C. Ripper for work in the diocese of Calgary.

(Women).—During 1918 eight women missionaries went abroad for the first time, as compared with five in 1917. Winifred Annie Boxshall, to Maseru, in the diocese of Bloemfontein; Ellen Mary (Mrs.) Crawford, to Delhi; Evelyn Mary Ashdown, Dorothy Elizabeth Olliff, and Margaret Child, to Lahore; Ellen Marguerite Tuckey, to Ranchi, in the diocese of Chota Nagpur; Lilian May Evans, to Tuticorin, in the diocese of Tinnevely; Jessie Caroline Vinter, to Barbados.

SUMMARY.—There are in all 1,384 missionaries on the Society's list. Ordained (including nine Bishops) 1,010—in Asia, 403; in Africa, 301; in Australia and the Pacific, 38; in Canada and Newfoundland, 177; in the West Indies and Central and South America, 86; and 5 chaplains in Europe. Of the ordained missionaries 322 are non-Europeans—200 in Asia; 116 in Africa; 2 in Guiana; 2 in Canada; and 2 East Indians in Trinidad.

Laymen, 35—26 in Asia; 3 in Carpentaria, Australia; 4 in Canada; and 2 in Africa. Of these 11 are non-Europeans—8 in Asia; 2 in Carpentaria; and 1 in Africa.

Women, 339, of whom 47 are non-Europeans—276 in Asia; 52 in Africa; 9 in the West Indies; and 2 in Canada.

During the year very few licences or permissions to officiate on the Continent of Europe were granted on the Society's nomination by the Bishops of London and Gibraltar.

There are also in the various Missions 3,000 Lay Teachers, 3,200 students in the Society's Colleges, and about 67,000 children in the Mission schools in Asia and Africa.

INCORPORATED MEMBERS.—One hundred and seventy-seven persons were elected by ballot and added to the roll during the year 1918, i.e. 153 clergy and 24 laymen.

THE SOCIETY'S INCOME.—The great War had not been long in progress before it became evident that the missionary work of the Church could not remain unaffected: that any attempt by S.P.G. to do more than hold on to positions won would, humanly speaking, be doomed to failure. There seemed to be but one thing to do, viz., with God's help to stand firm. Having resolved to adopt that attitude, the message was flashed round the dioceses overseas that S.P.G. pledged itself not to withdraw its aid from any mission that looked to the Society for support. It was a hopeful message sent out in faith, and it had a heartening effect upon our fellow workers at the front. But the message laid upon the Society at home a heavy weight of responsibility, and each succeeding year the burden increased and became more difficult to carry.

When, in the early days of 1918 (which has proved to be the last year of his Secretaryship) Bishop Montgomery addressed the Society on "The Income of 1918," the Bishop appears to have still kept clearly in view the primary importance of continuing to efficiently maintain the work of S.P.G. as it then existed. "To withdraw from nowhere; to stand firm everywhere." They were dark days when that last war-time appeal was written, yet again S.P.G. was urged not to go back; but to remain standing by its promises, though they would cost the Society more in 1918 than in 1917. The appeal concluded with these inspiring words: "Without apologies or doubts, but with the confidence of a passionate faith, the Society proclaims the need and awaits the result."

Now that the war clouds have, by God's mercy, been driven away and with the dawn of peace in view, it is our privilege to announce, with feelings of devout thanksgiving, the result of the Society's efforts at home in 1918.

The total income of the Society for 1918 amounted to £262,165, and exceeded the total for 1917 by £19,143. Only once previously, except in 1897—the Marriott Bequest year—has the income of S.P.G. turned £250,000, and this is the more significant since legacy receipts for the General Fund, last year, yielded nearly £8,000 below the average for recent years. Subscriptions, donations, and collections for the General Fund amounted to £154,086, thus exceeding by £6,670 the largest amount hitherto obtained from this source of revenue, and showing a growth of upwards of fifty per cent. in the amount received fifteen years ago. Legacies and interest received for the General Fund amounted to £22,553. The Medical Missions Department received an income of £16,501, including £3,013 contributed towards the sum required to complete the Edward Henry

* Including a gift of £4,000 to be invested and the income applied to the maintenance of a missionary to be selected by the Standing Committee; also gifts of £1,705 for investment, income only being available for expenditure.

† Of this sum £1,543 was received for investment, the income only being available for expenditure.

‡ This sum includes contributions received towards the Edward Henry Mosse Memorial Hospital Fund—£3,013 6s. 6d.

§ Included in these totals are sums of £23,652 in 1918 and £19,585 in 1917 contributed by our Affiliated Special Funds.

Mosse Memorial Hospital Fund. Receipts for various Special Funds, including the Affiliated Special Funds (£23,652), and the first contributions to our Peace Thankoffering Fund (£3,300) amounted to £69,025.

While we look with gratitude upon the progress that has been made in the past year, we must not lose sight of our objective, which, though set too far off to be reached in a single year, is not set further off than necessity requires. We dare not move our objective nearer. It must still stand. Not less than £175,000 from Subscriptions, Donations and Collections for our General Fund. A lesser sum will not suffice if the work which is now being carried on is to be maintained, to say nothing of the development and extension of work for which the Church overseas is calling.

THE CANDIDATES' FIVE SHILLING FUND.—The proceeds of the Candidates' Five Shilling Fund amounted to £3,165 9s. 8d. This is £110 in excess of the sum received in 1917. No day has passed since the initiation of the Fund in 1905 without bringing in its contributions, though no direct application is made for subscriptions. £3,000 has been voted by the Committee of the Fund to the Candidates' Department to provide studentships for men and women desiring to devote themselves to missionary service. The Secretary's report will be found in the Mission Field for April, 1919.

THE QUARTERLY INTERCESSION PAPER.—The circulation of the Quarterly Intercession Paper amounts to 113,000, including the Large Type Edition (1,700) and the Shorter Edition, (11,500).

Those wishing to receive the Paper, or to contribute to the Fund, should write to Canon Bullock-Webster at 1 All Hallows Lane, London, E.C. 4.

JUNIOR WORK, SCHOOLS, AND THE KING'S MESSENGERS ASSOCIATION.—Very manifest are the answers to prayer in the record of the Society's Junior Work for 1918. In the last year of fighting we have been given a lift forward, and on many sides there are indications of developments that promise much for the future. Diocesan activity has increased and Diocesan Committees for Junior Work have been formed where little work of the sort has been attempted in the past, and existing Committees are developing new activities. The permission to add Diocesan Representatives of Junior Work to the Central Committee was granted in October, and we hope for much from what the work will gain through the advice and inspiration of the Diocesan Secretaries who are being appointed to these posts.

Another move which has immense possibilities is the permission to appoint a Literature Secretary, who shall be responsible for all the Society's literature for children and young people. At the time of writing, no worker has been appointed to the post, but we hope that in our next Report we shall have much to say of what it has meant to have a special Secretary whose whole time is devoted to this branch of the work.

And what of the Association of the King's Messengers? The difficulties which have faced Branches have been severe. In the first half of the year, raids, dark streets, and other war difficulties continued to handicap Branch work, whilst later the various epidemics of influenza played havoc among workers and members. But the determination to play up was evidently firmly instilled, and throughout the year encouraging reports were received of work going forward with energy and zeal. And now that the tale of financial result is told, we feel it is a worthy outcome and an indication of much prayer, study, and service, which things cannot be set out in tables of statistics. The total contributions from King's Messengers are once again the highest recorded, and while the income of 1917 exceeded that of 1916 by £666, that of 1918 exceeded that of 1917 by over £1,500. Though the complete details are not yet available, we know that the total is over £9,700. During the past twelve months 134 new Branches have been registered and a number of secretaries for districts (dioceses, archdeaconries, and deaneries) have been appointed. We regret that there was a slight decrease in the number of members entering for the Examination on the Syllabus, though the number of Branches (241) was exactly the same as in 1917.

During the year the Committee spent much time over the preparation of a memorandum giving suggestions for work with older boys and girls, which, with the opening of 1919, is being widely circulated in the dioceses.

There has been no development of work in Boys' Schools as the Secretaries for that work have still been away on war service. The death of the Rev. J. S. B. Brough, who had the work in Boys' Public Schools in his hands before the War, is a great blow to the Junior Department, who desire to add their testimony to the inspiration they received from him and to their sense of privilege in having been associated with him in work.

The work in Girls' Schools steadily increases. During the War many schools have come to realise the missionary obligation, and there has been a marked increase of sympathy in municipal schools. Last year offerings were received from 117 schools, and in most of these study, in one form or another, and intercession have their place. The Girls' Schools' Festival was held in December, when representatives from a large number of the schools offered their gifts, which amounted to £1,127.

During 1918 an Old Girls' Guild has been formed for the purpose of giving further sympathy and help to those who have begun to study Missions while at school. At present the membership stands at thirty-six, and there is already evidence that the Guild is helping to satisfy a very real need.

A valuable Memorandum from Bishop Montgomery on the Organisation of Work in Schools was circulated among Diocesan Secretaries and Committees in the autumn.

OUR LITERATURE.—Owing to the increasing cost of labour, paper, and binding, the Society was compelled to limit as far as possible the output of new literature. The following list comprise the new items :—

In Difficult Places.—Series II., price 6d. net.

New Pamphlets.—"Mohammed or Christ" price 2d. net.—The "Real Issue of South Africa," price 4d. net. "Confirmation Vows," by late Canon Scott Holland, price 1d. "Filling the Gaps." Sermon by Bishop Montgomery, price 1d. The Quarterly Survey Leaflet has been regularly issued each quarter and has been compiled by Bishop Montgomery.

Penny Story Books.—The following new stories have been added to this series:—No. 18.—"Dugadu"—a stone (Bombay). No. 27.—"Will no one go" (Central Africa). No. 20.—"A Magic Telephone." No. 10.—"Words of Mbonambi" (Zululand), price 1d. each. We now have twenty-eight of these booklets issued in this series.

New Leaflets.—There has been but one new pew leaflet issued during the year. "Conversion of the World" (4 pp). A daily prayer for Missions has been printed in two colours in large type for hanging on wall, price 2d. per copy.

Intercession Literature.—Our annual edition of the Cycle of Prayer was again published at the low price of 2d. per copy. A special (4 pp.) leaflet, "Intercessions for Church Overseas in Wartime," price 2s. per 100; also a 4 pp. leaflet, "Intercessions for Church Overseas in View of Establishment of Peace," price 2s. per 100.

Revised editions of the following books have been printed during the year: "Here and There with S.P.G. in South Africa," price 1s. each. South Africa Handbook, price 4d. net. "The Claim of Suffering: a Plea for Medical Missions" (3rd. Edn.); price 2s. net. "The Land of Good Hope" (3rd. Edn.), in paper covers, 2s. 6d. net., in cloth covers, price 3s. 6d. net. Missionary Stories, 1st and 2nd Series, price 1s. 6d. each. Visions (2nd Series), price 2s. 6d. net.

We have been reluctantly compelled to increase the prices of many of our books owing to the heavy increase in binding charges.

Pictorial Postcards.—A portrait of the late Rev. E. H. Mosse, who was killed during an air raid, price 3d. per copy. We have also secured a stock of the three packets of interesting coloured postcards, Child-life in other Lands, price 7d. per pkt.

Missionary Diagrams.—We have issued two packets of diagram cards, each containing 6 cards, price 4d. net per pkt. If coloured, price 6d. net per packet. We have had to reprint these cards, the first edition being sold out.

The circulation of our magazines have been well maintained and regularly appeared each month, and we are glad to say it has not been found to be necessary to further reduce the quantity of pages of either magazine beyond what was stated in the 1917 report.

We are preparing a series of telling leaflets in regard to our Peace Thankoffering Fund and many thousands of copies of some of them have been circulated. A very interesting booklet, "The Creative Power of Money," has been published. It is attractively printed in tinted cover, price 1d. per copy.

A souvenir booklet, fully illustrated, is now in course of preparation, and should have a large circulation.

LENDING LIBRARY.—There has been an increase during the past year in the number of books circulated, 3,400 having been taken out by 780 borrowers.

KING'S WORKERS.—Our Association has grown considerably during the year, and five or six new Groups have come into being. Meetings, except for small Groups, have generally proved out of the question, but, singly, members have tried to keep up their S.P.G. work wherever possible. In some cases pioneer work has been undertaken among war workers with, as a rule, good results.

Of the Special Sections, Newspapers and Typing have brought in a good deal of work to their secretaries. But the past year had, as a whole, been one of effort to maintain existing work, and that the effort has been generally successful is proved by the many promises of increased work in the future.

Of the inner work of our Association no report is possible, but many of us have cause thankfully to acknowledge the help brought us through the intercessions of fellow members.

BRILLE DEPARTMENT.—The work of this department is, without doubt, becoming more widely known, and we have welcomed quite a number of new subscribers both for the Intercession Paper and the Mission Field.

Our Study Circles are doing good work, and, as usual, a new textbook was added last year to our Study Library. One or two sets of textbooks were also sent as gifts to our “daughter” Library in S. Africa.

During the year our Lending Library has been handed over, after due deliberation by the S.P.G. Literature Committee, to the National Library for the Blind, in the belief that a larger circulation for our missionary books is thus obtained.

Towards the close of the year our Braille Correspondence Club was inaugurated for the purpose of keeping in touch with those who wish to help S.P.G. work. There are already 31 members of the Club, and two circular letters have been sent out, which seem to have been highly appreciated, and to have been passed round to a wide circle of friends.

The sale of Christmas and Easter cards and gifts again brought quite a good return, and also some very appreciative letters. Friends have already helped much in making our Braille work known; we hope they will help still more in the future.

MISSIONARY STUDY DEPARTMENT.—In spite of war-time difficulties, the Department has helped to organise local Missionary Training Schools in the dioceses of Exeter (2), Manchester, Peterborough, Salisbury (2), and new study circles have been started.

United Study Programmes and Suggestions to Leaders have been prepared in connection with the textbook “The Riddle of Nearer Asia,” and the following pamphlets for shorter courses:—“Mohammed or Christ,” “Mass Movements in India,” “The Real Issue in South Africa.” Five Correspondence Circles have been held. Two sets of postcard diagrams have been published and a number of large diagrams has been copied and circulated for use at meetings.

Three short missionary plays for adults have been brought out, and classes for training in the use of story-telling for missionary purposes met with marked success.

MISSIONARY PREPARATION UNION.—Men's Division.—There are now only a dozen members, most of them still in the Army. The Secretary keeps in touch with them, and advises with regard to study those who have time for reading. We hope for a revival of interest, and an increase of members, in 1919.

Women's Division.—1918 has been an uneventful year, a year of hard work by our members if not of steady study. The number on the roll December 31, 1918, was 294. During the year there were one hundred and three inquiries and seventy new members admitted. Forty-one left the Union, of whom two had made their offer to S.P.G. and been declined, and one was elected by the Committee to the position of correspondent. Four members were accepted for missionary training by the Society. Five members sailed for the mission field, and one abroad was enrolled as a missionary. There was a small meeting of London members on St. Peter's Day.

MISSIONARY EXHIBITIONS DEPARTMENT.—During 1918 there were held under the auspices of the Exhibitions Department thirty-nine Exhibitions, mainly on the smaller scale, of which seven were arranged by the Organising Secretary for Manchester Diocese and four by the Organising Secretary for Durham and Newcastle.

There were also two independent representations of a medical court; 311 sets of tableaux and pageant dresses were issued, 159 being for K.M. Branches; 112 sets and 24 small selections of curios were also sent out.

An interesting feature of the year's work was the help given to camps at the Front and at home. Curios and Indian costumes were sent to Rouen and Catterick Camp. Tableaux costumes were sent to Étaples and Camiers and for a tour in the Shoreham district Y.M.C.A. huts.

The following short extracts from reports received show the value of this branch of our work, in which we co-operated with other Christian bodies:—

1. "In setting before His Church a whole world to be redeemed God has provided a moral equivalent for war.' It was the realisation of this which prompted the initiation and carrying out of a missionary propaganda on a large scale in the Étaples area, one of the largest military districts in France.

"A comprehensive scheme was adopted, which provided for the formation of 13 study circles, 140 weekly lantern lectures, the circulation of over 1,000 missionary books, the formation of missionary libraries, etc. Some 8,000 missionary booklets were distributed.

"During the missionary Missions at Étaples and Camiers, and in preparation for them, over 200 lectures were given, 12,000 missionary booklets given away, and at least 40,000 men were reached. Much interest was aroused. A large number of war roll cards were issued and signed.

"A staff, constantly changing, was formed from men passing through the camps to assist with the operating of lanterns and with clerical work. Some thirty of these became deeply interested in Missions. Some of them will carry a larger vision of the programme of Christ into their future ministry in the Church.

"The world outlook which this war has given us will place the missionary appeal in a new setting."

2. "The Y.M.C.A. authorities are going to try to get the societies to allow their curios to remain longer and to duplicate the show for simultaneous work in different areas. We have given away thousands of leaflets, and the men take them eagerly. We have just finished five days here, and about 3,000 to 4,000 men have been present."

3. "Your hamper of goods for the Exhibition were the finest items in the show."

TRAVELLING EXHIBITION.—The Exhibition visited fifty-five parishes during the year 1918, and was open for seventy-five days in the dioceses of Lichfield, Wakefield, Sheffield, York, Llandaff, and Chester. The lecturer in charge also conducted other Exhibitions in the Winchester diocese and assisted at several larger Exhibitions in the diocese of Manchester. In addition many missionary addresses were given on every Sunday when on tour. Literature sold realised £130, this being a considerable increase over 1917.

A splendid three days' Exhibition was held at Boston Spa, where the gross takings were £53 and nett £51, thus showing how an Exhibition can be worked with a minimum of expense.

The attendance at all the Exhibitions was excellent, and the popularity and usefulness of the Travelling Exhibition seems to wax greater each year.

FEDERATION OF JUNIOR CLERGY MISSIONARY ASSOCIATIONS.—There are now one hundred Associations more or less at work. The difficulties of war-days have in some cases proved insurmountable—lack of Junior Clergy, consequent overwork in town parishes and inability to foregather in the country districts, scarcity of train service, and prohibitive fares. For such reasons meetings have been well-nigh impossible; but, as one secretary writes, "perhaps a keenness that is only shown by meetings is less valuable than a regular use of Q.I.P. and other intercessions"; and we hope all our members have done their best "to continue in the first duty of intercession." In some cases general meetings have given way to more frequent study-groups: in others, Intercession Services have taken their place.

Only one member has been able to sail for an overseas diocese—the Rev. O. H. Thompson, of Portsmouth, who has taken up work under Bishop MacInnes, of Jerusalem. Yet another awaits a passport to Fuhkien—the Rev. B. W. Simpson, of Dublin. Several missionaries have been doing National Service as chaplains or in other capacities, and hope soon to return to their work abroad. We regret to record the death of the Rev. R. S. Seacome, of the South African Railway Mission.

There has been increased effort in deputation work this last year. Norfolk and Suffolk Associations have continued their Lantern Services; Oxford members were well used by S.P.G. at St. Andrew's-tide ; North Staffs organised preaching tours in two deaneries last summer, sending out men two by two—"such efforts provide real scope for the J.C.M.A. to make a real contribution to the missionary cause in the home parishes." In many cases members have been their own deputation or have helped by interchange of pulpits in their own districts. We hope such work will become a more regular, organised part of our life.

Our efforts in co-operation continue to be blessed. Joint meetings and services are arranged with the Clergy Union. Members, sometimes representatives of their Associations, take their part in Ruridecanal or Diocesan Boards of Missions. In Birmingham "six weekly meditations in the Cathedral, in combination with the Clergy Union . . . have given a wonderful stimulus to the spirit of amity and understanding between men of different schools of thought, and have broken down much prejudice." North Staffs arranged a meeting for silent prayer of about seventeen clergy and ministers.

The Recruiting Campaign has made a hopeful start. The Rev. W. E. S. Holland, who returned from India just after Easter, has recently spent four months with the B.E.F., and reports very hopefully. Our Chairman has been organising work at home, visiting several dioceses, and meeting over twenty of our own Associations. There is a keen spirit of inquiry and a widespread desire to co-operate earnestly in the campaign. Several members in one Association "have expressed readiness to attest for service abroad." In others there is careful preparation being made in view of Mr. Holland's visit, or to further a diocesan movement. We expect detailed plans for our co-operation with the campaign will gradually be unfolded, and we trust a splendid response will be made by our members, and through them by their parishioners, to the Call for Service in the Kingdom of God. For, as our Chairman writes in the Annual Report, "much for which the J.C.M.A. has laboured and prayed in years past is focussed in the Recruiter's message ; and now, in this very year, is the chance of burning it in flames of living fire into the heart and conscience and will of the Church. The great call of a world in need, of a civilisation bankrupt without Christ, of the winning of the whole world to the Cross—such thoughts as these raise living issues and set the great gulf that lies between a dead and a living Church. They inevitably bid us face once again in the light of the tremendous issues, being disclosed in part as the legacy of war, the old questions of an 'attested' clergy, the central direction and maintenance of clergy and workers, the readaptation of our machinery and methods to the new needs and the new spirit—in a word, the mobilising of the Church, not for England, but for the world. They bid us not only think anew and more largely, pray again and more faithfully, but act—with courage, conviction, and surrendered response to the world-purpose of our King. Christus regnat !"

FOREIGN STAMPS.—With the near hope of peace, the minds of ardent philatelists are turning to their old occupation, and already there are signs of a revival in our stamp collecting agency. During the past year the industry has had a fair success, the sum of £33 having been realised for 1918. We are looking hopefully to the future. It must be remembered success in the enterprise depends mainly on the interest shown by friends of the Society. Gifts of collections and miscellaneous stamps, especially those of higher value and old issues, are warmly welcomed by the Honorary Secretary, Miss K. Dalton, 86 Arthur Street, Chelsea, S.W. 3.

PEACE THANKOFFERING FUND.—The Standing Committee at their meeting on December 5 unanimously resolved to open a Peace Thankoffering Fund of not less than £250,000, and Diocesan Committees were invited to discuss at their next meeting the best methods to be adopted to give effect to this resolution. A system of apportionment will, it is hoped, be accepted, so that each diocese may contribute its quota, and dioceses overseas will be given an opportunity of taking part in this great act of faith.

The Fund will be devoted to furthering the wide schemes of pastoral, evangelistic, educational, and medical work which the bishops overseas have been invited to submit, and it will be administered by the Standing Committee and allocated in accordance with the principles which have ever guided the S.P.G.

Every effort will be made to safeguard the normal income of the Society while this Special Fund is being raised: one of our great subjects of thanksgiving is that all essential needs abroad have been met in times of war, and they must not now be jeopardised by our fresh act of thanksgiving. But our Thankoffering Fund is to be not only a recognition of the many blessings which our Society has enjoyed—it will go far beyond that, and will afford an opportunity of thanksgiving for national deliverance, for individual blessings, and for a worthy commemoration of those who have laid down their lives.

The Thankoffering Appeal will be spread over the two financial years of 1919, and 1920, and special gifts may be contributed by annual instalments over a period of five years, where that system is more convenient to a donor.

A series of leaflets has been prepared in connection with this appeal, which may be had on application to the Secretary, S.P.G. House, 15 Tufton Street, S.W. 1. The series includes the following:

The Creative Power of Money. By Mrs. L. Paget. 1d.

Leaflet No. 1. Come over and help us. By "A Man of Macedonia."

No. 2. After the War—What our Leaders say.

No. 3. Thanksgiving after Victory. By "An Old Contemtable."

No. 4. War Memorials.

No. 5. A Golden Opportunity in India.

A special illustrated booklet, entitled "A New Epiphany," is being prepared as a Thankoffering Souvenir.

Special collecting boxes, envelopes, and cards for use in the Thankoffering Appeal may also be obtained.

IRELAND.—It is encouraging to find that there has been an increase in the contributions to the Society in 1918.

Most of our best supporters have all been very busy in some kind of work connected with the War.

A movement is on foot to capture the help and sympathy of war workers for missions overseas.

The amount received for the General Fund is £3,280 2s. 6d.; for Special Funds £2,377 1s. 7d., making a total of £5,657 4s. 1d.

The Committee for Women's Work has received for General Fund £360 18s. 4d., and for Special Funds £94 1s. 8d.; total £455 (included in the above amount).

The generous layman renewed his challenge of £50 for the Western Canada Fund, if we raised £200. This was done, and we rejoice.

The Candidates' Fund reports from Ireland that £63 0s. 6d. was received from seventy-five subscribers.

The most important event in the year was the appointment of an Organising Secretary for the north of Ireland.

His sphere includes the Dioceses of Armagh, Down and Connor, and Dromore, Derry and Raphoe, and Clogher.

We expect great things from this venture. Seven-elevenths of the Church population are in these Dioceses.

No new recruits went out during the year. Miss Roe (D.U.M.) was able to return to Chota Nagpur.

There are 358 Incorporated Members, and 201 Members in Ireland.

ARMY MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION.—There is again a marked increase in the income received for S.P.G. for 1918, which amounts to £1,666 13s. 7d., as compared with £1,142 1s. 2d. in 1917, and £949 11s. 11d. in 1916.

Over £200 of the above amount came from Camps and Hospitals in Eastern Command, England, this year, while the Northern Command, England, the B.E.F. in France, and the Mesopotamia E.F., each sent over £100.

From the Mesopotamia E.F., also, a cable was received just before the close of the year, advising a further remittance for the A.M. Association of over £850, which will no doubt be found to include a substantial amount for S.P.G.

Our receipts for other Missionary Societies show correspondingly large increases during the past year. Laus Deo!

Hon. Organising Secretary and Treasurer, the Rev. M. W. Churchward, A.C.G., L.D., 38, The Chase, Clapham, London, S.W. 4.

NAVAL BRANCH.—We regret that it is not possible to give any detailed report. The total amount subscribed during 1918 was £139 2s. 1d., as against £126 1s. 11d. in 1917.

Rev. T. W. L. Caspersz, Honorary Secretary, R.N. Hospital, Haslar, Gosport.

HOME OF REST.—ST. EDWARD'S HOSTEL, WORTHING. It is a great joy that our Hostel has been used during the War by the Red Cross. The Hostel is now in a state of transition, and we hope it will be available during 1919 for its original use. We are indeed grateful to add that Miss Cochrane has to a great extent recovered her health, and hopes to reside and take an active interest in the Hostel, but will not again take up the actual reins of superintendence.

PRAYERS.

For the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts.

O LORD, in whose sight a thousand years are but as yesterday, and by whose providence and mighty power the acts of men are turned to Thy praise, and the affairs of this world directed to promote Thy glory, we, thy unworthy servants, offer unto Thee our thanks for the establishment of our Society and for the long-continued favour and protection which thou hast bestowed upon its endeavours to extend Thy kingdom upon earth. Send down, we beseech Thee, Thy blessing on it, and prosper its labours for the advancement of Thy truth, as well by the extension of the faith of Christ in the lands where His name is already heard, as by bringing the forces of the Gentiles into Thy holy Church, from the rising up of the sun unto the going down of the same.

O Lord, remind us perpetually of the example of those Thy servants, the founders of this Society; by whom, under the guidance of Thy Holy Spirit, this design was undertaken. Give to us and our successors grace so to follow their steps that we may labour earnestly until the everlasting Gospel is preached in all the earth to every nation and kindred and tongue and people, and this we beg through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

For our Fellow Countrymen Abroad.

O LORD JESU CHRIST, Who hast commanded us by Thy Apostles to walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called, and as we have each received Thy gift, so to minister the same one to another; grant to all who are baptized into Thy Holy Name, and specially to our fellow-countrymen who are scattered in distant lands, that in their way of life and by their words they may show forth Thy praise, Who hast called them out of darkness into marvellous light. Preserve them, we beseech Thee, from the sin of offending Thy little ones who believe in Thee, and from causing Thy Word to be blasphemed among the heathen. Send forth labourers into the harvest of the earth, and magnify Thyself in Thy people. Make them as the salt of the earth, and as a light in the world; that so, beholding their good works, and won by their holy life, multitudes may be turned to Thy truth, to glorify Thee in the day of visitation, Who art our Saviour and our God, blessed for ever. Amen.

GENERAL SURVEY OF S.P.G. FIELDS OF WORK.

The following brief suggestions may focus attention on important points.

The experience of 1918 brings into prominence such special needs as these :

EUROPE.—Obviously the restoration of Anglican worship in vast districts of Europe will need close attention. The problem of Germany and of parts of Russia and of Austria is not yet plain. But round the Mediterranean and extending to the Caspian, the way may be open if the funds and the living agents are forthcoming.

THE NEAR EAST.—This has not been an extensive field for S.P.G. Will it become more of a responsibility for us in the future—Palestine, Lebanon, Syria, Mesopotamia, even Persia? Whilst another Society is chiefly called to face directly evangelistic work, what of the care of our own race, both in the army and in business? More especially may the problem of Bagdad in this connection meet us ere long.

INDIA.—Already two problems are likely to press upon us during 1919. Succour for the Church in India on behalf of “mass movements,” and, it may be, succour in connection with Missions once German. It may also be that a call may come on behalf of the Anglo-Indian (Eurasian) community.

THE FAR EAST.—Throughout what is known as Indonesia (the Malay States, Singapore, Borneo, and islands extending to Australia) there is stir and promise of advance. The same is true of North China especially, and calls may come with special force from Manchuria and Corea as well.

AFRICA.—It makes the missionary statesman grave when he gazes over that vast Continent and realises what may be possible in the way of restoration during the next few years. It will be sufficient for us here to remember that the Province of South Africa may call upon us to aid in a magnificent advance. Moreover, such help as we can give may possibly be offered to the Province as a whole rather than to separate dioceses. As to the diocese of Accra, upon the Gold Coast, it awaits a reinforcement double, treble, its present numbers, and the advent at last of a fine contingent of women workers, who have been most sorely needed.

CANADA.—We await particulars from this noble Dominion and the Anglican Church in it.

THE WEST INDIES.—The same is true of this region. We have asked for large and united policies, and they may be upon us at any time.

THE SOUTH PACIFIC.—It is to be hoped that this vast oceanic region, dotted over with island groups, may form the subject of very special attention on the part of the great Churches in Australia and of New Zealand. There exists almost as a dot upon this ocean the little Mission at Fiji and in Tonga, both fostered by S.P.G., and for the sake of our own people scattered over these vast regions, possibly up to Hawaii. As soon as the political problems are settled, it is surely imperative for the Churches indicated to formulate a great policy for the Anglican Communion for a region extending from New Guinea to the coasts of North and South America. No one really knows the needs of our own Church people throughout this region. The Melanesian Mission is earnestly reconstructing itself. Whether also it is to be Australia or New Zealand, or perhaps the Sister Church in the United States, which will fill this gap in the world's surface, so far as Anglicans are concerned, that is the problem which must be faced in the Antipodes and in which S.P.G. cannot fail to be deeply interested.

Home Affairs.—This Report will contain in its pages a general statement of Home Organisation, but it will be in place here to note how many events of first importance have marked the 1918 at home. The following list focuses the chief facts:—

1. The largest income ever obtained (except for the abnormal occasion when the Marriott Bequest was received) both as a total and for the General Fund.

2. The resignation of the Secretary of the Society and the appointment of Bishop King.

3. The determination to give women their full status, and the alteration of the charter for the purpose.

4. The decision to join the "Conference of Missionary Societies."

5. The proposal to enlarge S.P.G. House upon the adjoining piece of land bought for the purpose eleven years ago.

6. The general methods of reorganisation overhauled and improved both in S.P.G. House and in the country.

7. The precedent caused by the promise of a grant to be allocated by a Province rather than by separate dioceses.

THE OVERSEAS WORK OF THE S.P.G.

INDIA—Calcutta.—During 1918 the reconstituted Bishop's College under the Rev. Norman Tubbs as Principal, and the Rev. R. Pelly as Vice-Principal, had its first session, beginning with sixteen students. They came from Chota Nagpur, Lucknow, Calcutta, Colombo, Tinnevely, and Burma. Calcutta

Delhi.—It has been decided to erect a Memorial Church at Mehrauli in memory of the late Canon Allnutt. It is a district of small Christian communities with hopeful outlook. The Rev. F. J. Western has been appointed Head of the Delhi Mission, and the Rev. H. C. Carlyon, Head of the Cambridge Brotherhood. Moreover, it is important to record that the S.P.G. Mission premises are being moved to a better situation, inside the city still, but in a more open spot. The Church of St. Stephen, however, remains. The Industrial School also is being removed to Kurnal. In this same diocese of Lahore we are proud to record that Deaconess Catherine Beynon has returned to the Head of the Deaconess Home at Lahore, at the request of the Bishop; she has been able to do so since home duties in England no longer keep her from the work of her life. Lahore

Chota Nagpur.—This is the best diocese in which to speak of the German Missions. All these Missions are being taken over by some religious body, the German missionaries having been refused permission to return—and rightly. It is an anxious question since it means the welfare of hundreds of thousands of Indian Christians, and also it is necessary to solve the problem of the Basel Industrial Organisations which largely financed the German Missions. The Conference of British Missionary Societies in London has long had the subject under consideration, and of course the Government of India is exercising full control. The Bishop of Chota Nagpur has heroically contended for four and a half years with the problems of the Gossner Mission which had been placed in his charge. The S.P.G. has been helping him throughout those years, and we await further news now that peace is about to be signed. Chota Nagpur

Madras.—This is one of the regions wherein the problems of "mass movements" towards Christianity has become of pressing importance. Enormous numbers of these low-caste and no-caste peoples have offered themselves for instruction. The Church of England has received 150,000, but much larger numbers await to be shepherded. The other religious bodies have all dealt with very large numbers. The S.P.G. is in touch with the movement Madras in two regions—the Telugu Mission in the Madras diocese, and at Moradabad in the Lucknow diocese, and it has of course gladly promised to do all in its power to meet the appeal of the United Indian Episcopate on behalf of these people. Moreover, it has promised to give the grant to the Province for allocation. This is a new step, and surely a noteworthy precedent for the future. The terms of the resolution are worth giving.

“AGREED—(1) That the Society welcomes the appeal of the United Episcopate of the Indian Province on behalf of the mass movements in India, and will gladly make it one of the first charges upon the Fund now being collected by the Society, viz., the Peace Thankoffering Fund.

“(2) That when the grant for mass movements is made it be placed at the disposal of the Episcopal Synod of the Indian Province for allocation throughout the Province, the money to be drawn as required. The Standing Committee believes that by such a course the Fund will be dispensed in the best possible manner.

“(3) That the Episcopal Synod be asked to forward a considered scheme which will show the requirements of the existing work, the possibilities of expansion and detailed proposals for meeting the demands of the work, both as regards workers and money, that will arise in the future.”

But there is more to tell of the Telugu Mission. A fine scheme has been placed before the Society. It asks for an Indian Bishop as soon as possible, stationed at Nandyal, with a strong body of well-trained Indian clergy throughout the districts; also, a strong educational centre which must at present be staffed by European missionaries. Here, again, is a big policy, and as such welcomed at home. Of course, women's work all through has to be co-ordinated with that of men.

Bombay

Bombay.—Two events must receive notice first. The Bishop of Bombay has asked the Society to furnish and pay for a complete staff for a work which calls forth our warm sympathy. Wonderful progress has been made in this Presidency under a distinguished Civil Servant in the reclamation of criminal tribes. Whole villages in India live by theft, dacoity, cattle-stealing and so forth. It is their immemorial profession. The Bishop asks S.P.G. to help him with one of these tribes. We earnestly hope to do so. The Bishop in Council has also determined to make Diocesan in future what has at present been done by two separate societies. The work among Hindustani-speaking people in Bombay is in future to become a diocesan duty. And again we rejoice.

We wish we were able to publish in extenso some of the reports of the clergy from this diocese. Space only permits us to quote from three, but they are typical. Canon Rivington, with the experience of forty years, refers to the problem of self-support, and says:

“Few village congregations in England, in the absence of endowments, could support their clergymen. Indian congregations are far poorer. Even if they could, there would still be need for evangelistic and educational work.”

Again, referring to the type of teaching:

“It is said that the presentation of Christianity has been too Western, both in form and ideas, and that we must teach in a thoroughly Eastern manner.

Granted that we might have a liturgy more suitable than the English Prayer Book and Churches more like the temples of the East, what difference are we to make in our teaching? The Bible is Eastern, the Creeds are Eastern, we use the Greek fathers, we use Eastern illustrations and we compare with Eastern books. What, then, is this thoroughly Eastern manner that is demanded?"

The Rev. H. H. Heaton speaks of Dapoli:

"In the whole of India it would be hard to find a more truly strategic centre for a High School than this little country town. Mr. Gadney has been in this one station for forty years, and all the work here bears the impress of his personality. Small as Dapoli is, in a district with no railways, no big cities, no wealth, it is none the less right in the middle of the area which the Chitpavan sect of Brahmins regards as its home. . . . This sect is by general consent in the first rank. Chitpavan Brahmins have risen to the top in every profession. When Shivaji's dynasty was ruling the hereditary Prime Ministers were Chitpavans. G. K. Gokhale, Justice Ranade, N. Goreh, the great Christian, Principal Paranjoe, the senior wrangler, N. V. Tilak, the Christian poet, B. G. Tilak, the Home Ruler, Pandita Ramabai, among women reformers, all belong to this sect. . . . A year ago much was being said about the conscience clause. . . . As far as my experience goes no hint of any conscientious objection to Christian teaching has ever reached my ears. Some boys object, but their complaint is simply that Bible study doesn't pay in the scramble for appointments."

Archdeacon King at Ahmadnagar reports that it has been decided to abolish for the present the office of "Head of the Mission," placing all authority in the hands of a select "Executive Council of the Mission." On this the priests in charge of districts have a place as well as three ladies. The Archdeacon begins also to think that it may be time to turn the chief attention of the Mission to the towns rather than to the villages. He also speaks very strongly of the necessity of reviewing the whole question of salaries, especially of masters of schools. We lose the best material. The Rev. J. Loughton speaks, after years of waiting, of baptisms among his people, and in the presence of multitudes of the neighbours who realised the courage needed thus openly to confess Christ.

TINNEVELLY—Bishop Waller speaks happily of the development of true Church life in his diocese. He explains how the old system that gave no freedom has passed. It was something like this—Pastorates, Local Councils, District Councils—all under the Superintending Missionary. There was no real freedom. There is now a truer Church life—Parishes, Rural Deaneries, Archdeaconries, and the Superintending clergyman becomes an Archdeacon. Then the Diocesan Council unites S.P.G. and C.M.S. and all others into one body. And this body advises the Bishop as to ordination candidates, it works out the diocesan budget, and it has inaugurated an Advisory Council of Superintending Missionaries whose help is very great. We rejoice as we hear of these things.

velly

Burma.—Many of the Christians in Burma enlisted, of course, during the War. So many came forward thus from Kemmendine and Rangoon that the Rev. C. R. Purser felt it to be his duty to join also, and he became a lieutenant and has been of the greatest

Rangoon

Rangoon value in consequence. From Kemmendine also came the news that on May 10, 1918, the Hermit, Ye Chun, whose praise is in the Gospel, and whose story is familiar to all, passed away. His converts to the Faith were numbered by hundreds. His premature death was caused by the privations to which he subjected himself during his hermit life. His memory and work remains as a treasure for the Church in Burma.

Pales- tine

PALESTINE AND THE NEAR EAST.—The Society is connected with the Bishop in Jerusalem and the East through the fact that the Secretary of the Society is co-trustee with the Bishop for a large amount of Church property. It also assists a special Mission in the Lebanon, which was the special care of the late Canon Campbell (who has left a legacy for it), and also of Canon Parfit. Further East, the Anglican Church is facing the future in Bagdad and Mesopotamia, and we await the result with special interest. The work of evangelisation in Mesopotamia and Persia has been, so far as the Church of England is concerned, in the hands of the Church Missionary Society, and a most devoted work it has been. It will be sufficient here to point out what an immense Moslem region now lies open to Christian influences, and especially for British and American Christianity—Egypt, the Soudan, Palestine, Syria, Asia Minor, Mesopotamia, Persia, Arabia. Should not a Province be created, even if it may have to be only at first a Province in outline and for conference?

Obviously also the great and inspiring problem of Eastern Church Christianity, to help it, to be on the terms of true fellowship and to look forward to closer union—this is an inspiring call. The Palestine Relief Fund has been warmly supported by the Society, and its agent in the field is the Rev. C. H. Gill.

Singa- pore

THE FAR EAST.—Singapore.—The Bishop of Singapore, having a great knowledge of Indian languages, was asked to go to Mesopotamia for several months to minister to Indian and British Christians, and we await the account of his work. The diocese of Singapore is on the point of enormous industrial and economic development. Railways linking up the Malay States with Siam are already opened. The wealth of the region is enormous, and there can be no doubt that we shall obtain from the Bishop and his Council big and inspiring policies.

Borneo

Borneo has received a new bishop, and we have received Bishop Danson's report covering eight months. He speaks warmly and gratefully of the way in which Archdeacon Small has held the fort and now is aiding him. But his staff is wholly inadequate. One priest is seventy-five; another, who is fifty-eight, has charge at present of five huge districts. The loss from ill-health of Mr. Elwell and his wife is most sorely felt. Their noble work at Quop will long be remembered. And Mr. Elwell was the one European priest who had learnt Lang Dyak. The Bishop earnestly hopes that Mr. Swinnerton, who went home to enlist, will speedily return to his post. At Kuching, the two important schools—St. Thomas's and St. Mary's—are both full and flourishing, and he tells of a solemn Thanksgiving Service on December 18 attended by the whole white community and by the Rajah and his staff. The Society takes this opportunity of thanking the Rajah for his warm support of the Bishop and the Mission. All through the diocese, both in Sarawak and North Borneo, there is the same lack of living agents, and also most splendid opportunities. The Bishop longs to penetrate inland and evangelise tribes untouched by any Mission. He also is urgent that means should be provided for a Catechist School for Chinese at Kudat, and for Dyak teachers at Banting. He also reminds us that the Rev. W. Howell, that devoted priest, is no longer young now, and has far too much to do.

Borneo

NORTH CHINA—Before speaking of the diocese of North China, we record with thankfulness the Meeting of the General Synod of the Church in Shanghai in April 1918. The full organisation of the Church advances. It has also started its own missionary effort in the West. The whole Church has also agreed to start a central Theological College for Chinese students for Holy Orders. Of course the teaching will be in English, and Hankow has been chosen as the site. S.P.G. has been asked for £2,500 as its contribution, and hopes to do all it can to help. This is a big combined policy. In North China a most excellent work has been done by the Rev. M. Lei, and the Church at home is proud of this war brother. During the terrible floods caused by the Yellow River, Mr. Lei was entrusted with large sums of money, and had to organise and watch over hospital, orphanages, relief works of all kinds, build bridges, and many other duties. He carried out all efficiently and honourably. The diocese has, of course, sent many of its staff with the Chinese Labour Battalions. All Chinese missionaries have suffered grievously from loss by Exchange, but the Society is making up all such losses.

North
China

SHANTUNG.—This diocese has also most generously lent its staff for war work. Its missionaries have been with the Chinese labourers; and when it is remembered that they have numbered 100,000, and are all North Chinamen, it will be realised how great a boon has been conferred, and how solid may be the effect in days to come. Some, too, of the staff, who did not leave China, have been deeply engaged in succouring the wives of these labourers and conveying to them their allowances. Chinan-fu, the capital, contains the Christian University, and the Diocesan Hostel, with its chapel, houses, students both in medicine and in arts. The diocese has one centre wholly under a Chinese priest—Hsin Tai—with seven catechists, twelve schoolmasters, nine village centres, each with a school.

less than six of its small European staff, trusting to the work of Corean priests, deacons, and catechists to fill the gap. We believe that the hope has been fulfilled and that fine self-help has been the result among Corean Christians. During 1918 additions were made to the ordained Corean staff. Four priests and deacons are now on the diocesan list. Moreover, the Bishop has financially aided a derelict Russian Church Mission in Corea. It was left stranded without funds, and the Bishop, with the Society's warm approval, handed over to the Russian Mission £30 a month, with a promise that the aid would be continued for twelve months. That period ceases in June, 1919, and peace, when signed, must be the occasion for a review of the whole position.

South
Tokyo

JAPAN.—Diocese of South Tokyo.—The year has been uneventful, as in the Christian movement in Japan in general, so in the diocese and in its S.P.G. Mission, save that it is marked by the removal of one very central and beloved figure, the Ven. A. F. King, who entered into rest in June, after about thirty years' ministry in Japan, leaving a place hardly to be filled as Head of St. Andrew's Mission and spiritual senior brother among the clergy, as well as expert in the liturgical work of the Church in Japan. It is generally agreed that the abnormal pressure on all trade and industries, and the struggle for existence resulting from the war, have made it harder at present to win attention for things spiritual. Our foreign staff, actually reduced for war service at home, has for similar reasons been unreplenished all these years. The Japanese staff has not this year been increased by ordination, and only by one or two additional catechists. One deacon has been permitted to earn his own livelihood and give honorary services, chiefly on Sunday. The statistics are not yet issued, but there is no reason to expect marked features. One new Mission has been opened, in the suburbs of Tokyo, with much promise, of which the management and most of the financial responsibility is Japanese. Another station, after years of non-response, has made marked progress towards stability and vigour, largely through the interest aroused by the Church kindergarten. Yet another has had special encouragement in the policy of winning whole Christian families in place of the merely individual membership which is so common an obstacle to solid growth. In such ways there is a good deal that, if limited, is healthy and encouraging in several other churches or stations, so that our workers do not appear either idle or depressed. The St. Hilda's School (Tokyo) makes steady, cheering progress. This diocese, which has more than once provided for the Japanese work in Corea, &c., has this year lent a (Japanese) priest to itinerate among the scattered Churchfolk in Manchuria, and supplied the first woman worker to the Japanese Mission in Formosa. Interest has been aroused in the Bishop's attempt to obtain a Japanese Bishop—so far unsuccessful; but the question of (at least) a Japanese Assistant Bishop is under consideration. The problem of ministerial support maintains pressure on the consideration of self-maintaining clergy. The problems of Christian marriage, and of how to get the women's work done in normal "parochial" life hang ever over us. We do want additional missionaries and money to bring them; but we want still more prayer for the raising up of Japanese workers worth training, and for laity with zeal to use the gifts they have.

Work among Lepers.—It will be remembered that for years Miss Riddell has carried on a devoted work among these people at Kumamoto, in the Diocese of Kyushiu, and she has been aided for some time by the Rev. A. S. Hewlett. Mr. Hewlett has now been transferred to Tokyo as his headquarters, and from there he carries on an extended work in many centres and with excellent results.

Leper

Diocese of Osaka.—Good progress has been made, though it is a day of small things. In East Kobe the money for the purchase of land has been found. The Seamen's Mission for Japanese, now two years in existence, is in a very flourishing condition. Influenza has been rife, as in other lands. We are glad to hear that women's work is most satisfactory. The Shoin Koto Jo-Gakko (the Girls' School) has kept up its numbers and several of the pupils have been baptised and confirmed. There is a great hope that the diocese may place a strong body of workers in Kochi, one ordained missionary and two lady workers. The same hope is expressed about the centres at Sanuki and Iyo: that means a worker from England or Australia, but also a staff of Japanese.

Osaka

AFRICA.—At present the aid of the Society is given to two regions—to the Province of South Africa, and to the diocese of Accra (the Gold Coast).

Africa

South Africa.—The Province has borne its full share of the spiritual burdens of the war, by sending a magnificent contingent of chaplains with the troops. The diocese of Pretoria alone lent forty priests, and other dioceses have depleted themselves for the same work. In addition to this, many workers have gone with the South African Labour Battalions. These labourers have during 1918 been repatriated, and have left a fine record behind them of steadiness and morality. This has been owing to the great care taken by the South African Government to provide high-minded overseers and to the manner in which all Christian denominations rose to the occasion. We thank God.

South Africa

The Bishop of Lebombo has been made Secretary of the Provincial Board of Missions. The income of the Board is not yet very large, but it grows steadily, and the Board has begun by granting £1,000 a year each to the diocese of Lebombo and to Church work in the region which was once German South-West Africa.

Speaking generally, European grants of money are spent upon evangelisation in this Province, whilst Churchmen of white race support their own clergy and parishes. The Society has a special interest in a very difficult and a very devoted Mission in Cape Town among Malay Moslems.

West Africa

Diocese of Accra.—A great sorrow befell this diocese through the death of the Rev. J. E. Boggis, killed in a motor accident. He was a most promising young priest and great things were expected of him, but he has passed on. Everywhere there are signs of vigorous life, in spite of a most depleted staff. On the coast a layman has given a valuable site worth £1,000 for the permanent church at Sekondi, and as a thank-offering. Moreover, the building for women workers is completed, and it is hoped that the long-looked-for contingent of women workers will arrive in the diocese during 1919. The need of such work has been sore felt the whole time that Bishop O'Rorke has been in the diocese. And here we beg to offer the Bishop of the Society's sympathy for the death of his brother, the Rev. B. G. O'Rorke, so well known as a chaplain in prison camps in Germany, so beloved by all who knew him. At Kumasi also, under the charge of Archdeacon Morrison, fine work has been done. The outstanding fact here has been the remarkable recognition given to the Archdeacon's work by the British trading firms in Kumasi. The managers of these firms approached their principals in England with a request that the heavy debts upon buildings under the charge of Archdeacon Morrison should be paid off, and this was done. We rejoice with the diocese; we know how rare this recognition is, and we thank God that this load has been taken away from this Mission. The Society's anxiety has been directed towards the staff, from the Bishop downwards, because furloughs have been delayed. Their earnest hope is that no harm may accrue to the health of very devoted men.

Mada- gascar

Madagascar.—This Diocese deserves the sympathy of the Society since it has bereft it of its Bishop, who has become the Secretary of the Society. Just before Bishop King left Madagascar, he was filled with sorrow by the death of Archdeacon McMahon, a true standard-bearer and noble worker. Archdeacon Kestell-Cornish accompanied the Bishop to England for a needed rest. Miss King has, of course, returned with the Bishop and will meet with a warm welcome by the Women's Committee of S.P.G. The notable event in Madagascar, a crown to the Bishop's work, has been the formation of a Synod and of a Standing Committee, partly European and partly Malagasy. On June 5 practically the whole ministerial staff of the Diocese met in the Cathedral, and lay representatives for parochial districts were elected. Thirty-six clergy and thirty-two laity were present and a most excellent spirit pervaded all the meetings. The Bishop says:

"The matters before the Synod were: The Church constitution; disciplinary rules; the spreading of the Gospel; heathen customs which must be disallowed. The Church constitution is a document of three pages of print, and is in the main founded upon that of the Province of South Africa.

"Our next task was to pass our revised canons on divorce and conjugal misconduct, a very delicate and important matter.

"We also, after a most interesting debate, passed a strong set of canons forbidding various heathen customs and sacrifices; the latter are a very real difficulty in heathen parts of the island. No native in those parts considers that the ghost of his departed relative will be satisfied unless a bullock is formally offered to the ancestral shades; in consequence we have to absolutely forbid baptised Christians to (a) be present at such a sacrifice, (b) eat the meat of the sacrifice. I may remark incidentally, in the outlying parts the only chance, or almost the only chance, of getting a meat dinner is when there is a funeral in the neighbourhood or a thanksgiving sacrifice, and that it is a real hardship to many to deny themselves the pleasure. Still, the rule was made absolute, wherever any idea existed of an offering to the dead: the custom of eating meat here, in the Central Province, at a funeral, was not interfered with, as it has ceased to be idolatrous.

"Lastly, we had to consider carefully the steps to be taken to extend our Church. Rev. Paul Tsimilanja and a lay representative had come all the way from the north to urge upon us two things: (a) the need of a Hova teacher among the Sakalava of the north-east of the island, and (b) a Hova catechist for the town of Diego. The two men started to walk back a week later, and expect to be a month on the road. They also urged that two fresh catechists should come up to study and prepare for Holy Orders, and that some more of their sons (we have four as it is) should be received as boarders in Tananarivo or elsewhere. After a serious debate on the need of the two Hova catechists for those parts, the Synod broke off its debate to engage in prayer. It is very hard to find men who will go to these distant places."

CANADA.—It is only possible to mention outstanding events from lack of space. The whole Church accorded its sympathy to the Archbishop of Nova Scotia for the terrible explosion of munition ships in Halifax Harbour, causing widespread destruction. Five churches were wrecked besides serious damage to the Cathedral. Every diocese in Canada has suffered from depletion of clergy, many having gone to the front as chaplains. Churchmen have done splendidly indeed, since eighty per cent. of the Canadian Army were Anglicans. We are glad to hear that where two or three districts have been left in the charge of one priest, the greatest assistance has been received from the use of Ford motor cars, so much so that it is hoped that extended use will be made of such appliances in the future.

The Canadian Church has put forth a spirited appeal for a sum of £50,000 as a Peace Thanksgiving Fund to be devoted to the welfare of the Red Indians, the original inhabitants of the land. This help is all the more necessary because of the steady withdrawal of the C.M.S., owing to the conversion of the Indians to the Faith. The S.P.G. has been unable to support this fund directly, owing to the creation of its own Thankoffering of £250,000. But it has assured the Canadian Church that it hopes to aid in due time from this Fund.

The Diocese of Rupert's Land has met the appeal of the Society for the Saving of Grants, and has nobly given up the whole Block Grant for 1918, except the portion which aids St. John's College, Winnipeg.

The Diocese of Qu'Appelle is rejoicing over the establishment of a secondary Girls' School in Regina owing to a legacy of £3,000, and the debt on St. Chad's College has also been reduced by £1,400.

The Mission to Chinese and other Aliens.—A Provincial Board has been established for Chinese immigrants and their spiritual care. The Rev. N. L. Ward says:

Coast; and from it can be worked the Chinatowns in the dioceses of New Westminster, British Columbia, Cariboo, and Kootenay. There are also numerous other settlements of Chinese scattered all over Canada. Toronto is reputed to have over 4,000 Chinese at present, while Montreal has well over 2,000. Edmonton and Calgary both have over a thousand each. Hamilton, London, Ontario, Winnipeg, Regina, Medicine Hat, and Lethbridge have over five hundred in each place.

The plan upon which this work may be built up on a statesmanlike basis is for the superintendent to choose from among the Chinese Christians in Canada men who can be trained up as catechists, and then have them stationed in the various Chinatowns mentioned above. The superintendent, who is in priest's orders, would then go around from place to place periodically, and celebrate Holy Communion in the Cantonese dialect. This, then, is our aim—to have the evangelisation of the Chinese in Canada carried out by Chinese catechists and Chinese deacons, all of whom will be superintended by the missionary set apart for that purpose.

The general outlook is most encouraging for this work among the Chinese in Canada. In Vancouver we have a Chinese deacon, a Chinese divinity student, and a woman missionary. What the Church needs most urgently is a Mission Hall. The heart of this problem lies in Vancouver Chinatown. The Chinese people are at the present time wretched, restless, and discontented with their lot in life, and they are glad to hear of any message which holds out hope. Their own country is in a state of turmoil, being split up into political factions and parties.

Barbados*Trinidad

THE PROVINCE OF THE WEST INDIES.—The lamented death of Archbishop Nuttall called for the election of a new Archbishop, and the choice fell upon Dr. Parry, Bishop of British Guiana. At the same time the see of Trinidad was filled by the consecration of the Rev. A. H. Anstey, Principal of Codrington College. The choice had been delegated to an English Committee elected for the purpose by the diocese of Trinidad, the Bishop of Oxford as Chairman. The Rev. J. C. Wippell, one of the staff of Codrington College, was elected as its new Principal. Mr. Wippell was serving at the time as chaplain at the front. The work in Venezuela, so well begun by Canon Trotter a few years ago, being the care of the Anglicans throughout a vast region, has temporarily been closed down in the Orinoco district, owing to the closing of the mines under pressure of war conditions. Venezuela is administered by the Bishop of Trinidad. The Diocese of Nassau lost its Bishop (Dr. Hornby) by his retirement after many years of devoted service. The appointment of his successor has not yet been made. The Bishop of British Honduras, Dr. Dunn, the gift of the Canadian Church, has lost no time in formulating a fine policy for his diocese, covering all its needs, and it is hoped that all its details will speedily be carried into effect. The Bishop's chief material need has been a motor boat in order to enable him to cope with the work upon the long coast line.

SOUTH AMERICA—the diocese of Argentina.—The Bishop's charge covers an enormous area. Scattered over the land are thirteen chaplaincies—fourteen self-supporting, eleven assisted. The S.P.G. helps the diocese with the camp chaplaincies. These are a tremendous problem. It is an effort to reach our people in little knots on estancias at great distances from each other. The amount of travelling necessary is enormous, and for a "few sheep." Yet it is Christ-like work. Train services in 1918 have been bad, yet here is the summary of the Rev. W. J. Sugden : 53 Camp Services held, besides a regular monthly service at Junin. Attendances vary from 28 to 4. Holy Communion is celebrated at 17 centres, the attendance varying from 14 to 4. This is just a specimen of work well pleasing to S.P.G.

AUSTRALIA.—A correction must be made under this head of a loose statement in the Annual Report of 1917 in connection with the Australian Board of Missions, which has led to misapprehension. We apologise for the word “amalgamation” when we treated of the rapprochement of the C.M.S. in Australia to the Board of Missions. The best correction will consist in giving extracts from the exact words of the Memorandum sent by the Australian C.M.S. to all its members.

Australia

“The Church Missionary Society of Australia and Tasmania is specially recognised as an agency of the Church in her Missionary work in connection with the Board of Missions and is entitled to representation on the Board.

“The C.M.S. loses none of its characteristic features. Its principles remain the same that they have ever been, and it is entirely unfettered in regard to its constitution ; it is also unfettered in its method of working and the disposal of its funds.

“No change has been brought about, and it would be contrary to the letter and spirit of the Determination were any parish to be taught that existing C.M.S. organisations must now disappear and in their place others be formed of a more general character.

“Any C.M.S. supporters or others may send through any of its organisations funds which they wish to contribute to any part of the work expressly undertaken by the A.B.M. In like manner, any of those who are working under the direction of the A.B.M. are at liberty to receive funds for the C.M.S. In both cases such funds will reach the destinations intended by the contributors. But this does not mean a fusion of A.B.M. and C.M.S. nor an absorption of one by the other.”

S.P.G. Aid in Australia.—As is natural when we deal with a great independent Daughter Church well on into the second century of its existence, possessed of four Provinces, with a General Synod and the full organisation of the Church and a most vigorous missionary life, the time approaches when the Society speaks of the moment when aid for such a Church from the Mother Church in regard to S.P.G. funds should cease. Grants from the Society do not now amount to more than £3,300, and even this includes a special grant of £500 from the Marriott Fund to North Queensland to remedy the effects of a cyclone, and these are given to the fringes of the Continent, north-east and north-west, and west. The Society respectfully offers its respectful admiration for the growing force of the missionary fervour of the Australian Church. It is also aware how wide an outlook is before it in the coming days. The Australian Daughter will be called to take its share in larger enterprises of evangelisation, and of shepherding, in consequence of the banishment of Germans from the Pacific. The subject has already been dealt with on p. 38 in the General Survey, and these are not the least important part of this Report of 1918. But it may Australia be as well to repeat here how great is the need of help from the great Churches of Australia and of New Zealand for the outlying Missionary Diocese of Polynesia, and chiefly for a supply of living agents. Perhaps no Anglican diocese in the world needs succour so much. Meanwhile Bishop Twitchell holds the fort in Fiji, and Bishop Willis and his helpers carry on a noble work in the Tongan Group. Outside these Groups there is a vast region in which our Anglican brethren are unshepherded. The Society longs to see advance.

EUROPE.

The Society's work on the Continent has been much affected by the war. Most of the chaplaincies have been closed, and for a large proportion of them the cessation of hostilities will not immediately bring the possibility of reopening. The chaplaincy at Paramé, which had been combined with St. Servan, is having its late chaplain, the Rev. R. S. Kendall, in residence again.

St. John's Church, Boulogne, and All Saints' Church, Dieppe, have been placed at the disposal of the military authorities.

During the last year of the war the pressure on the English Church life in Southern Europe was heavier than ever.

In the centre, from Marseilles to the Adriatic, congregations have been still further reduced and clergy few. Many chaplaincies and churches have been closed; some, most prosperous before the war, have been reduced to great straits. At Constantinople the Crimean Memorial Church has been served by the Rev. W. S. L. Day, Chaplain of Moda, under circumstances of increasing distress. It is to be remembered that this is a time in which the re-forming British mercantile communities claim imperatively the spiritual and material support of the Church.

much missed when she retires : the patients come to her with all their troubles. The number of patients is naturally a little lower than in years when there was a full staff. There are fourteen nurses in training.

Rewari.—Plague and influenza in their most virulent form sent up the number of in-patients, but the out-patients decreased, as “those who did not die of the influenza were too ill to come.” Miss Francis happily recovered from her illness after a long convalescence. The hospital was closed for two months—one wonders that it was possible to keep it open for the remaining ten !

Rawal Pindi.—Dr. Cowie’s work was made more difficult by the influenza epidemic, and by changes in her Indian staff. The out-station, Kahuta, had a somewhat irregular service : it is difficult to find anyone who will stand its loneliness for any length of time.

Lucknow

Cawnpore.—It will be remembered that St. Catherine’s Hospital was closed for a week in 1917, and would have had to remain closed for want of doctors only that Dr. Muriel Iles came to the rescue and undertook to go out for a year. At the end of that period there was no one to take her place, and so, with very great reluctance, the hospital was closed in September 1918, and it will not be possible to reopen it until next autumn. Miss Ann Cave-Browne and Sister Rodgers have been able to come home ; the former, to our great regret, is not returning ; she will be much missed. Sister Aldrich is working at Moradabad. The training of nurses demanded, as usual, a large share of the Sisters’ time and attention. The closing of the hospital affords an opportunity for much-needed repairs and reconstruction of the sanitary arrangements, before it is reopened in the autumn of 1919.

Chota

Ranchi.—Out-patients for nine months numbered 22,142, and there were 85 in-patients—an increase on the previous year. The Government Inspector-General of Civil Hospitals inspected the hospital, advised enlargement, and summed up by declaring that the dispensary is “adequate and satisfactory, and it is evidently a useful institution deserving of encouragement and support.” His approval takes the practical form of a special grant of £30 for two years. A hopeful feature of Nurse McDonald’s very interesting report is the amount of help received locally, not only from English people but from Indian Christians. The Girls’ High School and the Sunday School help in various ways. More remarkable still are gifts from non-Christians—one rich Hindu sent £2 1s. 8d. to pay the cost of 1,000 doses of medicine at a halfpenny a dose !

Itki.—The influenza epidemic “completely disorganised all village work for months, and taxed us to the utmost to carry on.” Nurse Miller was ill for a time ; how she was able to “carry on” is a mystery. We are glad for her sake that her furlough is now very near : but what will become of the sick people in her large district ? We have no one to replace her. She pleads very strongly for a doctor to be sent to Itki, and we warmly endorse her appeal.

Chota
Nagpur

Murhu.—Dr. Sankhar carries on his labours with his usual zeal and industry, not only in Murhu, where the little hospital is located, but over a wide district. He visits a number of country centres on bazaar (market) days, to the great benefit of hundreds of sick people. His only means of locomotion is a bicycle, which makes the work very heavy. Miss Claypole is at present working in Calcutta ; her place at Murhu has not yet been filled.

Govindpur.—There is no hospital, but Dr. Kennedy carries on his medical work side by side with his other numerous avocations, such as superintending Missions over a wide district, training theological students, translating the Bible into Mundari, &c., &c. Long rides of 25 to 30 miles to attend difficult cases are of fairly frequent occurrence.

Singapore.—As foreshadowed last year, the hospital was moved from Cross Street, where work has been carried on since 1914, to much smaller premises in New Bridge Road. This is regarded as only a temporary shelter, and we hope that a more suitable and commodious site will soon be secured. No increase in the nursing staff or the number of patients is possible until that has been achieved. The dispensaries (three, including that at the hospital) have been carried on regularly, and the usual multiplicity of races and tongues has been noted among the patients. A doctor is greatly needed, to give to the work that undivided attention which Mrs. Ferguson Davie, in spite of her enthusiasm and untiring efforts, is unable to bestow. Here, as elsewhere, the influenza epidemic entailed a great deal of labour and anxiety on the already sufficiently-burdened staff. Evangelistic work has proceeded steadily, with some visible results. The school attendance has naturally been injuriously affected by the change of locality.

Singapore

Malacca.—The work has been carried on under great difficulties, owing to the lack of a resident doctor. A remarkable and gratifying testimony to the value of the hospital is the fact that a ward, mosquito proof and completely equipped, containing ten beds, has been presented by a Chinese gentleman for the use of Chinese patients. The ward was formally opened on February 8, by Sir John Bucknill, Chief Justice of the Straits Settlements.

Peking.—China is in one important respect—the opportunity for influencing medical education—our most interesting and most promising field, but our commitments there are as yet on a very small scale. The Bishop writes : “ It would seem that for a diocese which, in 1905, had no medical work, and in 1918 had closed its Peking Hospital, which has seconded its only English doctor for other work for the last three years, and which is soon to see him go on furlough, we

China

North

have quite enough medical 'irons in the fire' with our Peking Dispensaries, Hochien Hospital in full swing, Yung Ch'ing Hospital under way, and two more hospitals planned. But there is yet one more need to be considered and if possible met, namely, a Sanatorium School for Consumptive schoolgirls at the Western Hills. Anyone who is at all conversant with Mission work in North China knows how grievously prevalent is tubercular disease, what a heavy toll it takes from our Mission Schools, and how difficult it is to provide the necessary treatment in any ordinary hospital."

Reference has already been made to the "Edward Henry Mosse Memorial Hospital." The two dispensaries (men's and women's) in Peking have done good work. Dr. Margaret Phillips' help has been most valuable. Miss Lambert has worked steadily on, although her furlough is long overdue. Reinforcements, both of doctors and nurses, are urgently needed.

tung

Ping Yin.—It was found necessary to close the hospital for a short time from November. Up to that time Dr. Frances Cunningham and Miss Lawrence had kept it open under great difficulties. We trust that Miss Gibbs will soon be able to join them. We are hoping for important developments both at Tsi-nan-fu Christian University and in the country districts in 1919. It ought to be possible (granted the necessary workers) to reopen Yen-Chow-Fu very soon, and the Bishop wants medical missions at two other important centres.

Corea

Chemulpo.—Hospital still remains closed.

Chin Chun.—Dr. Laws has completed twenty-one years of devoted service. "Ay In," the Corean name for the hospital, consists of two words which mean love and mankind. It is small compared with the American Presbyterian Hospital in Seoul, which has seven foreign doctors, but it is a centre of light and healing and does a great work. New out-patients numbered 4,282, of whom 141 were admitted for treatment; there were 9,004 old patients—that is, cases attended to in previous years. Dr. Laws is very anxious that their due meed of praise should be awarded to his loyal Corean helpers, who "take a pride in doing their work as in the sight of God." The cost of food and medicines has been exorbitant, and this, combined with the alarming fall in the value of the pound sterling, has made it very difficult to keep the work going during the year.

St. John's, Kaffraria.—No reports have come to hand from this diocese. Miss Grist is working happily as nurse at Mlengana with Dr. Hannah Irving.

AUDITORS' REPORT.

AUDITORS' REPORT.—We have examined the Accounts of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts for the Year ending December 31st, 1918, and having seen the vouchers for the various payments we certify that the Society had, at the close of the Financial Year, an available Cash Balance of One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twelve Pounds, Two Shillings and Four Pence (£1,812. 2s. 4d.) on account of the General and Working Funds; Seventy Three Thousand Four Hundred and Ninety One Pounds, Eleven Shillings and Two Pence (£73,491. 11s. 2d.) on account of the Special Funds. We also certify that the Society had a Loan of Ten Thousand Pounds (£10,000) from Messrs. Barclay & Co., Ltd. (Gosling's Branch), on account of the General and Working Funds. We also find that the Receipts and Payments on account of the General and Special Funds, and the Balances held on account of the Special Funds, do agree with the entries in the Ledgers. We also certify that the Society had the following Investments.

PRIDEAUX, FRERE, BROWN, & CO.,

Chartered Accountants: 12 Old Square, W.C. 2.

20th February, 1919.

GENERAL AND WORKING FUNDS. [The Cash on Deposit and at the Society's Bankers, as stated in the foregoing report, together with the following Investments, are held to meet (1) the excess of Payments over Receipts to 30th November; (2) Grants voted for exceptional purposes, but spread over terms of years not yet concluded,]

CURATES' AUGMENTATION FUND

THE ONLY SOCIETY IN THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND FOR THE PURPOSE OF HELPING ASSISTANT CURATES.

PRESIDENTS { HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.
 { HIS GRACE THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK.
TREASURER : REV. T. A. SEDGWICK.

This Society augments the stipends of Curates who have been more than 15 years in Holy Orders and are still in full active work.

Of the 7,000 Curates very many have been ordained more than 15 years, and this number is annually increasing.

It is the only Society in England that directly increases the Stipends of Curates of long standing.

The War has seriously strained our resources. £1,000 required immediately to avert diminution in the number of grants.

The Church is multiplying Curates three times as rapidly as she is multiplying Benefices.

Nearly £7,000 was voted last year in Grants.

The average stipend of those receiving Grants does not exceed £3 a week.

Church Collections, Subscriptions, and Donations thankfully received.

Cheques, P.O.O., and Postal Orders, crossed 'COUTTS & Co.', should be sent to the

ISSUED BY

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS,
15 Tufton Street, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE BISHOP OF AN ENGLISH DIOCESE says: "The ordinary Spiritual ministrations of the Clergy are of vital importance to the nation. Our people at home unquestionably need both the guidance of Christian principles and the support of prayer and Sacrament."

A PRAYER.—O most blessed Saviour, Who of Thy great goodness hast given unto us the light of Thy Gospel, make our hearts truly grateful for all Thy gifts, and earnestly desirous that others may alike enjoy the same. Fill us with zeal for Thy glory in the salvation of the unbelieving and ignorant. Permit us to aid in this holy work, that our prayers and alms may come up for a memorial before the Father, and be accepted in His sight. Amen.

HOME MISSIONS OF THE CHURCH.

THE ADDITIONAL CURATES SOCIETY exists to help poor parishes to obtain the assistant Clergy they require and could not have without money assistance from outside their own borders. In helping poor parishes the Society touches the slums in the centre of large cities, the poorer suburbs outside the cities, and also the mining and other industrial towns and villages.

The Society's CENTRAL FUND is open to receive contributions specially given to help in maintaining Clergy in the more hardly-pressed Dioceses. The Fund also continues the support which the Society gives for Clergy in the Staffordshire Potteries, the Middlesbrough Ironworks, and the South Yorkshire Coal Field; it also provides Missioners for several new industrial districts created since the outbreak of war. Contributions sent by Subscribers and Donors direct to the Society's House are allocated to meet the needs of the more hardly-pressed Districts.

Higher stipends are now urgently necessary because of the higher cost of everything. Larger grants are most pressingly needed. GIFTS for the purpose will be welcomed. Cheques should be crossed "Coutts for a/c of Additional Curates Society."

A.C.S. HOUSE:—51 BELGRAVE ROAD, LONDON, S.W. 1.

THE ARCHBISHOPS' WESTERN CANADA FUND

is asking £50,000 to place on a permanent and lasting foundation the Missions started by the Fund at Edmonton, Regina, and in Southern Alberta.

The interest from this sum will be sufficient to support the Missions and to maintain a body of clergy for pioneer work. Thus equipped, the Missions will be HANDED OVER TO THE CANADIAN CHURCH IN 1920.

REASONS FOR HELPING:—

"We want when our ten years are over for our work to endure. . . . For Canada's sake and the Empire's sake the thing we have set our hands to do is, we believe, worth while. . . . Therefore this particular effort in this particular form I commend to you with all my heart."

ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY.

"To repay some of their debt to Canada . . . not only as a memorial of comradeship in the time of war, but also still more as a pledge of comradeship in the higher and greater tasks to which the war is pointing us in the days to come."

ARCHBISHOP OF YORK.

DONATIONS AND COLLECTIONS ARE EARNESTLY ASKED FOR, and will be gratefully acknowledged by the Rev. Canon Beal, A.W.C.F., Church House, Westminster, S.W. 1.

THE SOCIETY'S MAGAZINES.

NOTE.—It will save the Society considerable expense and labour if all magazines (except "The Church Abroad") are ordered through a local bookseller. Postage is eliminated in most cases, and subscribers are enabled to alter their number as circumstances may require and render their payments monthly, instead of paying in advance to the end of the year.

"THE MISSION FIELD." "The Mission Field" is the official organ of the Society and appears in a cover of attractive design, which frames a different picture each month. Its size is crown 4to (9 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. $\times$ 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.) with double columns, and the text is well illustrated. The price of "The Mission Field" is 1d. a copy. Obtainable from all booksellers, it is also supplied direct from S.P.G. as follows :

Twelve or more copies a month are sent carriage paid, if payment is made in advance to the end of the year. Postage is charged on smaller quantities and single copies. Rates on application.

The bound volume 2/-, by post 2/6. Covers for binding, 1/-, by post 1/3. The cover design is entirely new and greatly enhances the appearance of the volume.

An Edition for the Blind. The Society issues monthly an edition of this magazine printed in Braille type for the blind. It is obtainable direct from the office only. Annual subscription, 2/-, post free, payable in advance.

"THE KING'S MESSENGERS." An attractive monthly missionary magazine for children aged from eight to fourteen. Illustrations are a special feature. The price is $\frac{1}{2}$ d. a copy. Obtainable from all booksellers, it is also supplied direct as follows :

Twelve or more copies a month are sent carriage paid, if payment is made in advance to the end of the year. Postage is charged on smaller quantities and single copies. Rates on application.

Bound volumes price 9d., by post 1/- Covers for binding 2d., by post 3d.

"THE EAST AND THE WEST." "The East and the West" is a quarterly review, royal 8vo. Its raison d'être is to discuss problems which arise out of Mission work, both in heathen countries and the colonies. "The East and the West" may be obtained through any bookseller at 1/- net per copy, or direct from the S.P.G. Office (15 Tufton Street, S.W. 1), by post 1/2, or 4/6 per annum, post free if prepaid. Volumes I. to XV. are now procurable, price 4/6 net each, by post 5/-. Cases for binding 8d. net, by post 10d.

"THE HOME WORKERS' GAZETTE," S.P.G. A monthly survey of the Society's Home Work, each department being responsible for a certain portion. It is the regular means of communication between the Departments and their own workers throughout the country, replacing the numerous departmental notices formerly issued by post. It is obtainable through all booksellers, price 1d. per copy, or direct from headquarters at 1/6 per annum, post free, payable in advance. Volumes I. to VIII. of the new series are obtainable, price 1/6 each, by post 1/11, and form valuable works of reference.

"THE CHURCH ABROAD." "The Church Abroad" is primarily intended for insertion in Parish magazines. It contains numerous illustrations and is at present issued in two sizes, namely : crown 4to (9 $\frac{3}{4}$ in. $\times$ 7 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.), and 8vo (8 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. $\times$ 5 $\frac{1}{2}$ in.). Specimen copies and terms of subscription will be sent on application. Bound volumes (4to edition) 6d., by post 9d.; 8vo 9d., by post, 1/-.

Sample copies of any of these magazines will be sent on application to the Manager of the Publication Department, 15 Tufton St., Westminster, S.W. 1.

Over 7,000 Penitents were received during the past year.

PENITENTIARY

(Founded 1852.)

ASSOCIATION,

(Incorporated 1910)

Church House, Dean's Yard, Westminster.

FOR Promoting the Establishment and assisting the maintenance of Houses of Mercy and Refuges. There are now in union with the Association fifty-five Houses of Mercy and one hundred and forty-seven Refuges situated in various parts of England. Most of these Houses of Mercy keep Penitents for two years.

HELP IS URGENTLY NEEDED
towards the support of these Houses.

Assistance is gladly given to all who apply for advice in the treatment of Penitentiary Cases.

A free Register of Lady Workers and Matrons is kept at the Office.

Hon. Sec.—Rev. T. G. CREE.

THE LONDON FEMALE GUARDIAN SOCIETY.

Office: 191 HIGH STREET, STOKE NEWINGTON, N. 16.

FOUNDED 1807. For the RESCUE and RECLAMATION of BETRAYED and FALLEN WOMEN from all Parts of the United Kingdom, with IMMEDIATE and FREE ADMISSION to APPLICANTS. Supported by Voluntary Contributions.

Patron—HIS MAJESTY THE KING.
President—THE LORD KINNAIRD, K.T.
Vice-President—THE BISHOP OF CHELMSFORD.

THIS NATIONAL RESCUE SOCIETY provides accommodation for nearly 80 Young Women who aspire to lead a virtuous life. Since its foundation in 1807, MANY THOUSANDS of Betrayed, Fallen, and Helpless Women have been rescued from the streets, welcomed to its HOMES, shielded from evil, instructed in the way of righteousness, and freely supplied with food, clothing, education, and a long residence of 18 months for training as domestic servants; while some THOUSANDS of casual and necessitous cases have been advised, helped and sheltered. Persons interested in Rescue Work are invited to send cases.

Testamentary BEQUESTS
are earnestly solicited.

Funds are most urgently needed to maintain this Christlike work.

Contributions will be thankfully received by BARCLAY'S BANK, Ltd., 54 Lombard Street, E.C. 3; and by the Secretary, Mr. W. EDWIN PAGE, Office, 191 High Street, Stoke Newington, London, N. 16.

From S.P.C.K. List

ENGLISH LITURGICAL COLOURS.

By Sir WILLIAM ST. JOHN HOPE, Litt.D., Hon. D.C.L., Durham, and E. G. CUTHBERT F. ATCHLEY, L.R.C.P. Lond., M.R.C.S. Eng. With a coloured frontispiece. Cloth boards, 25s. net.

This work gives a complete account of all the evidence in regard to the use of liturgical colours in the Church of England which can be obtained from a study of the rules laid down in the statutes, customaries and ordinals of certain great churches, from references contained in the inventories of cathedral, collegiate, monastic and parish churches, and from bequests of vestments and altar furniture for special purposes or occasions of use.

The Times Literary Supplement says: "They have rendered to all students of the subject, and, we may add, to the students of many other subjects which are illustrated by their labours, a really important service in the scholarly accumulation and weighing of evidence, set forth in a style which is both clear and interesting."

The Church Times says: "All the available evidence has been examined and digested. The result is a noble volume which will, for a long time to come, be the standard authority on the subject. It is a monument of learning made intelligible by the necessary explanations."

THIRTY YEARS IN TROPICAL AUSTRALIA.

By the Right Rev. GILBERT WHITE, D.D., Bishop of Willochra. Preface by Bishop H. H. MONTGOMERY. With Illustrations. Cloth boards, 10s. 6d. net.

[One of the most fascinating of travel books. Full descriptions are given of life in Queensland, and the Northern Territory, with chapters on the Torres Straits and the Philippines.]

HOW THE GOSPEL SPREAD THROUGH EUROPE.

By C. H. ROBINSON, D.D., Editorial Secretary of the S.P.G. With Maps. $7\frac{3}{4} \times 5$. 192 pp. Paper covers, 3s. 6d.; cloth boards, 5s. net.

[A book of great topical interest, dealing with the evangelization of the whole of Europe on an equal scale. How Prussia, Poland and the rest of Central and Eastern Europe received the Gospel is a fascinating story very little known.]

CHRISTIAN WORSHIP.

Its Origin and Evolution. A study of the Latin Liturgy up to the time of Charlemagne. By Monsignor L. DUCHESNE. Translated by M. L. McCLURE. Fifth Edition. Cloth boards, 15s. net.

[Yet another edition of this well-known work has been called for. It contains the author's latest improvements.]

A SHORT HISTORY OF S.P.C.K.

By W. K. LOWTHER CLARKE, B.D., Editorial Secretary of the S.P.C.K. With a Preface by the ARCHBISHOP OF CANTERBURY. Paper cover, 1s.; cloth boards, 2s. net.

[The first attempt to tell in a popular, but scholarly, way the story of this great Society and to expound its present aims.]
